Work Just Beginning

The 1981-82 school year is winding down, but plans for next year are already being organized. To lead Bishop Kearney's activities for 1982-83 are newly elected Student Council officers: Ted Oberlies, a senior next year who will serve as vice president; Lynette Manuse, who will be a senior, is president; Colleen Sullivan, a junior in September, will serve as secretary; and Dan Viola, also going into his junior year, will be treasurer.

Boston Scholarship Goes to O'Connor

Tim O'Connor, who will graduate from Aquinas Institute on June 6, has been awarded a scholarship to Boston University School of Engineering. The scholarship is funded by the National Society of Professional Engineers. Tim was one of 280 applicants from New York State. He plans to pursue a course of studies in Computer Engineering.

TIM O'CONNOR

Tim resides with his parents, Frank and Mary Ellen O'Connor, on Rutgers St., in Rochester and he is the youngest of eight children. Four older brothers preceded him at Aquinas. One brother, John, is a chemical engineer and another, Brian, is a graduate student of engineering, studying for his MA at the Rochester Institute of Technology.

This summer, Tim will be traveling to France to participate in a cultural seminar at La Baule, near Nantes. A four-year French student, he was picked to represent the U.S. because of his knowledge of the language. The Lions Club International sponsors this four-week seminar in July.

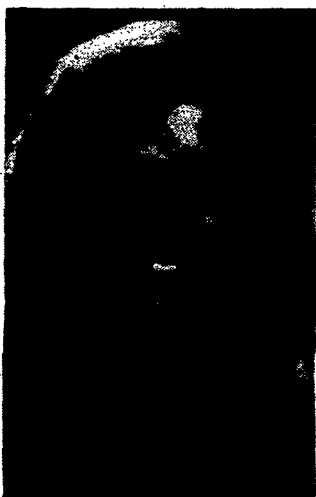

Winner

Karen Donalty, a senior at Our Lady of Mercy, was the recipient of the Winner's Circle $5 for the week of May 12.

Optimism on the Bases

"They're looking really polished and that's great for early season," said Dave Pisano, coach for the Nazareth Academy varsity softball team. "We're going to the sectional finals this year," added coach Karen Roycraft, "and I think it's a real boost for the team, knowing the potential we've got." Nazareth came in second in the league two years ago and third last year. Pictured above is the 1982 team. Managers are Kathy Dwyer, Vicky Rowe and Heather Hopkins.

JULIE LENHARD

Mercy Author Wins Honor

Julie Lenhard, a senior at Our Lady of Mercy High School and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. James Lenhard of Penfield, has won honorable mention in the Friends of the Rochester Public Library Junior Literary Award for 1982 for her short story "Rabbit Tracks." She received her award at a program held at GeVa Theater yesterday, May 25.

Julie was one of three winners in the county-wide contest and "Rabbit Tracks," the first short story she had written, was an outgrowth of her creative writing class. She was encouraged by her teacher, Mrs. Jane O'Brien, to submit her story to the contest.

"I'm really happy about it," Julie said, adding, "I didn't think I could ever do it."

An honor student, Julie is the president of the National Honor Society, assistant editor of the Quill and was chairperson for Mission Days '82. After graduation, Julie will attend college to pursue a career in biological sciences.

Seniors Are Ready

Aquinas senior exams begin Thursday, May 27. The Baccalaureate Mass is at 7:30 p.m. on Saturday, June 5, and graduation is at 3 p.m. on Sunday, June 6.
