

At Your Parish...

St. Andrew

The Rosary Society of St. Andrew's Church will hold its annual banquet to install new officers June 29, at the Colonial Inn. Reservations are required and are made prior to June 18 by calling Terry Bement, 266-1450, or Betty Pudetti, 342-8355. The prime rib dinner costs $13; shrimp, $10; turkey, $8.

Also in the parish, Father Robert Gaudio will induct the new officers of the Holy Name Society at a breakfast following the 9 a.m. Mass, Sunday, June 13. The new officers are: William Northrup, president; Raymond Quatrino, vice president; John Sdoia, treasurer; Charles Cometa, secretary. They replace John Gorall, Richard Born, and Joseph Born.

Resurrection

The youth group at the Church of the Resurrection in Fairport recently sponsored a "Rock-a-Thon," marathon rocking in rocking-chairs, to raise funds for Chris Garman and his family. The young adults' event lasted for 10 hours.

Youth group members knocked on doors, circulated posters, and participated in the event.

Garman has been in a coma for several months at Genesee Hospital following an automobile accident New Year's Day in the Adirondacks. The teens' idea came from the parish Caring and Sharing program.
