

Sports Awards Presented To Aquinas Athletes

Paul Caufield, a three-year member of the varsity track team and co-captain of the 1981 cross country squad, received the first annual Father Michael Wesley Award for his "team spirit and leadership" according to coach Tom Gigliotti. Also, this past spring, Caufield ran a personal best in every event in which he competed.

Other track awards included Steve Winter as Most Valuable Player, Sam Boyd as Most Improved Player, and Chris Schiano as Most Outstanding in field events. Tom Loewenguth was named Most Valuable in field events, and Mike Spaziano won Most Improved in that category.

Steve Buttons was named Most Consistent Player for his fielding and hitting in the past baseball season. Tony Alomar was voted Most Valuable and Most Outstanding Player of the year on the diamond. Both were chosen to the All City-Catholic League team this season.

Ecumenism

A blood drive for the Red Cross will provide an ecumenical venture for St. Pius Tenth Church and the Parkminster Presbyterian Church. The drive will be 1-7 p.m., Tuesday, July 27, in the St. Pius Tenth school gym, 3000 Chili Ave. Sister Ann Vincent is chairing the drive with a goal of 160 pints of blood.
