The Open Window

Rebellion, Not Pluralism, Is Problem

Dear Father Hohman,

Did you happen to read the article "Rejection of Vatican Council at Root of Rift..."

Today, we as Roman Catholics have the opportunity to attend most non-Catholic religious services for a variety of reasons...

In the Catholic Church there is also a variety of liturgical rites, each retaining beauty and truth as a part of Catholic history.

Now to the heart of this letter. Why, then, all this disheartening clamor about the Tridentine Latin Mass?

Considering the Church's position (and prohibition) of the Tridentine Mass, the following makes this conflict even more confusing:

- 1. In the name of "ecumenism," we can attend the non-Catholic religious services...
2. We're able to attend an

Sister Shirley Kitagawa, a Religious of the Cenacle, will present an Effective Living Seminar...

Eastern Orthodox Mass in order to appreciate the various "rites" within the Church. Yet, and again, we cannot do likewise with regards to the Tridentine Mass...

3. Within the Roman Catholic Church, the New Mass is expressed in a variety of styles: folk, charismatic, and of course, the vernacular.

It has been said that there must be "unity of faith," that "we may all be as one." Those are sound words.

(Signed) G.E.

Dear G.E.,

I'm very sorry we cannot print your whole letter but it is much too long for the space we have available.

I think the answer to the question must lie in the fact that Rome is more concerned about the spirit of rebellion behind it than the fact of the Tridentine Mass.

Here at ST. AUGUSTINE'S and ST. MONICA'S Schools, we are struggling to provide spirit-filled Catholic education to poor but deserving children. Parents desperately want Catholic education, but Rochester has very few central city Catholic schools. Please, will you help us? Your financial gift ($1, $5, $25, or any amount) to our 80-year-old schools will make Catholic education possible for more of God's children.

THANK YOU, St. Jude, for prayers answered. A friend:
