

Two Area Basilians Note Anniversaries

Basilian Fathers Joseph B. Dorsey and Charles J. Lavery, marked the 40th anniversary of their ordination to the priesthood Aug. 15. The priests are widely known in this area. Father Lavery is now chancellor of St. John Fisher College after many years as president of that school.

Father Dorsey, Eastern U.S. Representative to the General Council of the Basilian Fathers, has been highly visible in both civic and educational circles.

Father Dorsey celebrated his anniversary at St. Patrick's Church in Syracuse. Father Lavery celebrated a Mass of Thanksgiving at St. Louis Church in Pittsford.

Both men were ordained in Toronto by the Cardinal James Clark McGuigan, Aug. 15, 1942.

Father Lavery, left, congratulates Father Dorsey.

Two Make First Vows in SSJs

Sisters Katherine Nicosia and Kathleen Cosgrove will make their first commitment in the Sisters of St. Joseph of Rochester Saturday, Aug. 21.

Sister Katherine, daughter of Frances and the late John Nicosia, is a native of Texas. She taught art and photography in Houston and Austin for several years prior to moving to Rochester where she earned a masters degree in Fine Arts from the Rochester Institute of Technology.

Sister Kathleen is the daughter of Mary and Thomas Cosgrove of Clinton. She studied dietetics at Cornell and Rochester, Minn., before joining the staff at St. Joseph's Hospital in Elmira.
