A scene from last year's festival at St. Jude's.

St. Jude

Under the direction of Father John Steger, pastor, St. Jude's Church will hold its annual festival Sept. 17-19, an event he promised to be "the biggest and best yet."

Highlighting this year's festival will be family dinners served each night and an auction at 1 p.m. Sunday.

On Friday, the traditional fish fry will be served; Saturday, a ham dinner; and Sunday, lasagna. All dinners are $3.50 each, with half price for children under 12. Serving runs 5-8 p.m. except on Sunday when dinner starts at 3 p.m.

In addition to the dinners, hot, hamburgers, and Italian sausage with all the trimmings will be available.
