Audrey Culhane

Funeral services were celebrated at Our Lady of Lourdes Church Oct. 5 for Audrey Culhane, a longtime Brighton resident and wife of the late Michael Culhane, who died suddenly while visiting South Yarmouth on Cape Cod, Oct. 1, 1982.

An active member of many local Catholic groups, Mrs. Culhane served the Catholic Women's Club of which she was past president, the McQuaid Jesuit Aides, Nazareth College Concepts and both the Women's Board and a Seton Chapter of St. Mary's Hospital. Her special area of concern was for scholarships for worthy students who otherwise might be unable to attend a high school or college of their choice.

Born in Binghamton, the daughter of the late Frank and Julia McHale, Mrs. Culhane became a registered nurse and was employed in that capacity part time at the Valley Manor on East Avenue.

She is survived by two sons: Kevin of Alexandria, Va., and Rory of Walnut Creek, Calif.; a daughter, Kathleen Tarbox of Rochester; two sisters, Eleanore Cox and Jean Lloyd, both of Binghamton; and three grandchildren.

Sister Blandina, SSJ, In Religion 74 Years

Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated Oct. 2 for Sister Blandina Giordano of the Sisters of St. Joseph, who died at age 88, Sept. 30, 1982.

Sister Blandina had entered the community in 1908, three years after she immigrated to the United States from Italy at the age of 11.

Sister Blandina graduated from Nazareth Normal School and taught in the elementary schools of the diocese for 54 years. Among those schools were St. Patrick's Cathedral School, St. Anthony of Padua, St. Francis Xavier, Sacred Heart and Holy Rosary. She taught in other schools for shorter periods of time.

On retirement from the classroom in 1963, she lived at St. Joseph's Hospital in Elmira, where she spent time with the children in the pediatric wards. At the time of her 60th anniversary of religious life, Bishop John E. McCafferty wrote to her:

"Your presence and kindness to the children of St. Joseph's Hospital emphasizes the continuance of the apostolate of gentle understanding which must have been known to the little ones from whom Christ would not allow himself to be separated."

Because of her failing health, Sister Blandina retired to the Infirmary of the Sisters of St. Joseph in 1976.

She is survived by a brother, Vincent of Rochester; and several nieces and nephews.
