Mother Teresa has said what the poor really need is "a hug" someone to show them that they are loved by others, and by God. Through your prayer and sacrifice on Mission Sunday, you give the world a hug!

From sharing token gifts with the poor as a child, Father Juan Vargas now shares his entire life with villagers high in the mountains of Bolivia. They will all be celebrating WORLD MISSION SUNDAY on October 24th.

OCTOBER 24

YOUR GENEROUS SUPPORT without boundaries of your parish: the prayers you give and the sacrifices you inspire will reach the ends of the earth.

On October 24th, our Catholic family the world over will unite in prayer and sacrifice for the poor of the Missions. Your prayers provide spiritual energy for Christ's missionaries. Your sacrifice on Mission Sunday provides the means for the work of the Mission Church. Please be generous.

The generosity of Catholics to the Poor is literally the "daily bread" support for the work of the Mission Church around the world. Please support them. Your prayers and sacrifice on Mission Sunday, October 24th, will support the Mission World!
