

Leaders Take Office

Cardinal Mooney Student Council officers Mary Beth Holahan (vice president), Thomas Greco (treasurer), and Lisa Nichols (secretary) were on hand to welcome students to classes. David Pierce will serve as Student Council president. Other students serving their classes are senior officers William Campbell (president), Sue DeSilva (vice president), Colleen Graham (secretary), John DeSimon (treasurer); junior class: Charles Campanella (president), Joan Segruie (vice president), Traci Reeves (secretary), Michele Maslona (treasurer); sophomore class: Carla Amato (president), Mary LeChase (vice president), Beth Graham (secretary), and Chris Inzinga (treasurer). The freshman class will elect its officers next month.

Reagan Sends Letter To Catholic Educators Backing Tax Credits

Hyannis, Mass. (NC) — In a letter to Catholic educators, President Reagan has pledged continued support of tuition tax credit legislation.

The president's letter told members of the Chief Administrators of Catholic Education, a department of the National Catholic Educational Association, during a meeting Oct. 18-21 in Hyannis: "I have asked my staff to hold a meeting with all interested groups immediately following the (Nov. 2) elections to decide upon the best legislative strategy for winning passage of this bill.

Regional Speaker

Sister Judith McKay, administrator of St. Joseph's Villa, will be the keynote speaker for the Northwest Regional Assembly, 7:15 p.m., Oct. 29, at Holy Cross Parish. The assembly will discuss Bishop Matthew H. Clark's pastoral letter, "Fire in the Thornbush." Celebrant and homilist for the assembly Mass will be Bishop Clark. The public is invited to the event.

"I pledge that I will continue to do everything I can to get this bill enacted. If we are not successful in the lame duck session, we will press all the more vigorously in the first session of the 98th Congress."

The letter, dated Oct. 15, recalled that Reagan, in addressing the NCEA national convention last April, has told the educators "the time is ripe to move forward vigorously on tuition tax credit legislation."

The president noted the difficulties his tuition tax credit bill had met in the Senate Finance Committee saying that "maneuverings" of opponents had succeeded in delaying it beyond the deadline for action in the regular session of Congress.

Tuition tax credit legislation would give parents tax credits for part of the tuition they pay to send their children to non-public schools.

The president denied that tuition tax credits would harm the interests of racial minorities, saying that his bill includes "unequivocal prohibitions against racial discrimination" giving the Department of Justice enforcement authority. The president also pointed out that fully 19 percent of Catholic school students are members of racial minority groups.

The Hyannis meeting attracted a record attendance of more than 300 educators and their spouses. Addressing its theme, "Leadership in Sharing the Light of Faith," keynote speaker Sister Mary Dooley discussed awareness of vocation as a legacy from St. Paul to modern apostles. She is president of Our Lady of the Elms College, Chicopee, Mass. and a member of the Sisters of St. Joseph.

Bishop Daniel A. Cronin of Fall River, Mass., was principal celebrant and homilist at the convention's major liturgy.

SENIOR ALERT — Sponsored by Region IX Statewide SCAC CLAR and featuring workshops to discuss and inform about Social Security and Medicaid/Medicare, 10 a.m., Saturday, Oct. 30, Church of the Incarnate Word. Donation $1; refreshments and free parking.

THEATER — "La Corte de Faraon" ("The Pharaoh's Court") performed in Spanish by the Repertorio Espanol, 8:30 p.m., Friday, Oct. 29; South Street Theatre Productions of New York City to present "The stronger" and "Hughie," 8:30 p.m., Saturday, Oct. 30. Both events at main auditorium, Nazareth College Arts Center. Tickets available at Nazareth box office, 586-2420.

SUNDAY AT NAZARETH — Features "Over There," a musical revue of the World War I era presented by Nancie Kennedy, soprano, and Howard Spindler, pianist, on Saturday, Oct. 30, in main auditorium, Nazareth Arts Center.

SENIOR MATINEE — Halloween Party featuring

"Flying Down to Rio" starring Fred Astaire, Ginger Rogers, 1:30 p.m., Thursday, Oct. 28. George Eastman House.

Let's Play Cards

The Aquinas Parents Association is having its annual card party at 8 p.m., Saturday, Nov. 6, in the school cafeteria. A donation of $4.50 per person will cover snacks and a hot buffet. Deadline for reservations is Monday, Nov. 1 and they can be obtained by calling 458-9603 or 647-1900. Co-chairmen for the event are Marge Prewasnick and Kitty Lum.

Political Advertisement

ABORTION?

LEWIS LEHRMAN
Candidate for Governor
IS AGAINST ABORTION
and against Medicaid financing to pay for it.

FLORENCE SULLIVAN
Candidate for U.S. Senator
IS AGAINST ABORTION
and against Medicaid financing to pay for it.

Paid for by FRIENDS of the UNBORN
Mrs. Arlene Ryan, Auburn, Chairman

Political Advertisement

Political Advertisement

JUDGE MALLOY FOR COUNTY COURT

Democrat/Conservative

Judge Charles T. Maloy Talks About County Court

"My eight years experience in Rochester City Court has me convinced that it is imperative that the law be upheld and that justice be dispensed quickly, fairly and unequivocally.

It is equally imperative that each case be approached with an acute sense of balance between the rights of the victim as well as the defendant.

These are the qualifications and experience that I bring with me to the office of Monroe County Court Judge."

- City Court Judge since 1975
- Graduate of Aquinas Institute
- Graduate, Holy Cross College
- All-American Quarterback, Holy Cross College
- Graduate of Temple University, Bachelor of Law Degree
- Youngest City Councilman Ever
- Practicing Attorney for 17 Years

ELECT JUDGE MALLOY - ROW A or C

Paid for by the Committee to Elect Judge Charles T. Maloy for Monroe County Court

Political Advertisement