

At Your Parish...

St. Joseph

Livonia — The 25th annual roast beef dinner for St. Joseph's Parish will be served 1-4 p.m., Sunday, Nov. 14, in the church hall on Washington St. The menu includes roast beef, mashed potatoes, gravy, green beans, cabbage salad, rolls, home-baked pies, coffee, tea, milk and mints. Tickets at $4.75 for adults, $2 for children, with children under five admitted free, are available at the door. A harvest table will also be part of the day's activities.

St. John

Port Byron — The annual Christmas Bazaar of St. John's Church here is slated 9:30 a.m. to 3 p.m., Saturday, Nov. 6. Lunch will be served 11 a.m. to 1 p.m., and a demonstration of Fall and Winter arrangements will be conducted by Lindy Burke at 2 p.m.

St. Helen

The Altar-Rosary Society of St. Helen's Church will hold a tureen supper, starting with wine and cheese, 6:30 p.m., Wednesday, Nov. 10, in the parish center. Those attending are asked to bring a dish to pass and $1 to cover the cost of the meat that will be provided.

Our Lady of Lourdes

Elmira — The religious education committee of Our Lady of Lourdes Parish is sponsoring the Marriage Alive program of James and Lita Gillette, 7:30-10 p.m., Friday, Nov. 12, in the audio-visual room of the regional school. The Gillettes are associated

St. Philip/St. Josaphat

The Women's Club of St. Philip Neri Church will visit St. Josaphat's Church in Irondequoit, 8 p.m., Tuesday, Nov. 9. A tour is planned and an explanation of the Eastern Rite will be presented by

St. Mary

Waterloo — Thirty-eight persons attended and 24 completed the recent five-week Continuing Education for Religion Teachers program at St. Mary's Parish here. The diocesan course was Level I Basic Program on

St. Stephen

Geneva — The parish life committee of St. Stephen's Church here is sponsoring a ziti and meatball supper, 5-7 p.m., Friday, Nov. 5, in the school hall. Take-out service

St. Lawrence

A six-week study of Bishop Matthew H. Clark's pastoral letter on women in the Church, "Fire in the Thornbush," will open 7:30-9 p.m., Tuesday, Nov. 9, and con-

Cathedral

The Rosary Guild of Sacred Heart Cathedral will open its next meeting with Mass at 6:30 p.m., Monday, Nov. 8. After Mass a tureen supper will be served in the rectory

Ss. Peter and Paul

Elmira — The annual turkey festival of Ss. Peter and Paul Parish here will begin 7 p.m., Saturday, Nov. 6, in the Good Shepherd

Shirley Bradybaugh and Irene Shevlin are among the principals for the Altar-Rosary Society of Good Shepherd Church's ninth annual Craft Show, 10 a.m. to 7 p.m., in the school gym and downstairs annex, 3264 E. Henrietta Road. More than 90 craftspersons will display their wares. Included crafts are macrame, silk flowers, homemade milk chocolates, counted cross stitch, jewelry, crocheted and home-sewn items, toile ware, pom-pom animals and ceramics. Refreshments will be served throughout the day.

Deadline

Items intended for publication in At Your Parish should be typed, double-spaced, and at the Courier-Journal offices before noon on Thursday preceding Wednesday publication. The Courier-Journal address is 114 S. Union St., Rochester, N.Y. 14607.

Holy Family

The Rosary Society of Holy Family Parish will meet 7 p.m., Wednesday, Nov. 10, in the church. At that time a Mass will be celebrated for deceased members of the society. Following the Mass, a meeting and a bazaar will be held in the Pine Room. Mrs. Frank Haag is hostess for the evening. Donations of plants and handmade articles are being accepted by Mary Ann Walter, 8 Marlow St. Ms. Walter also is researching the history of the society and has issued a call for information. Her phone number is 436-8878.

St. John, Greece

A two-hour program on the sacredness of life, planned by the diocesan Human Life Commission, will be presented 10 a.m., Wednesday, Nov. 10, at St. John's parish center. Speakers Father William Barrett, Michael Rae and Carol Leary will address the subject of sacredness of life, feminine issues, and "the Holocaust mentality." A film, "Who Shall Survive," will also be shown. The public is invited to the event. Further information is available by calling the religious education office, 225-5840.

St. Anne

Palmyra — A call for parish craftsmen to help with making goods for this year's Christmas Bazaar went out last week in St. Anne's Parish here.

Persons skilled in crafts projects were asked to contact Isabelle Potter, 597-9357; piebakers, Anna Marie Nellis, 297-4564; persons with household goods and white elephants (no clothing) to donate, Zita Reedy, 597-5762, and Gerry Frederick, 597-5701; cooks to prepare and serve the luncheon, 597-5158; and general help to contact the rectory.

Precious Blood

The annual arts and crafts show for Most Precious Blood School will be 10 a.m. to 7 p.m., Saturday, Nov. 6, and 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., Sunday, Nov. 7. Featured items include Fall centerpieces and Christmas gifts and decorations. In addition, a concessions stand will provide hot sandwiches, cold drinks and snacks.

Police Holy Name Sets Annual Mass

Bishop Matthew H. Clark will preside at the annual Mass of the Monroe County Police Holy Name Society, 6:30 p.m., Saturday, Nov. 20, at Sacred Heart Cathedral.

Immediately following the Mass a buffet dinner will be served at Dandrea Party House, 1713 Lyell Ave.

All members of the law enforcement community, spouses and friends, are included in the event.

The Holy Name Society will also honor its immediate past chaplain, Father Jeremiah Moynihan, now chaplain at St. James Mercy Hospital in Hornell, and will welcome Father Thomas Wheeland, pastor of Holy Cross Church and the new chaplain to the Rochester Police Dept. and the Greece Police Dept.

Tickets at $8.50 per person are available by writing to Monroe County Police Holy Name Society, c/o Det. Jim Kriepke, Greece Police Dept., 400 Island Cottage Road, Rochester, N.Y. 14612, prior to Nov. 15.

Members of the committee organizing the event are Sgt. Mike Lanoer and Officer Ray Slattery of the Rochester Police Dept. and Chief Gerry Phelan of the Greece Police Dept.

Bowlers Join Fight On Cystic Fibrosis

Bowlers throughout the area are signing up for this year's "Bowl-for-Breath" campaign, a project of the Rochester Chapter of the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation.

The campaign will run Nov. 6-12, and will raise funds for work against Cystic Fibrosis, an inherited and fatal disease which strikes children.

According to Linda Larmon of the foundation, Ron DeFrance is this year's honorary chairman of the event. Individual bowlers register at area bowling centers and receive a sponsor sheet to sign up sponsors for their efforts.

Further information on the program is available by calling the foundation at 546-5890. League bowlers have especially been invited to participate.

First Friday

Father William Heffron and Brother Robert DiManno, both members of the Sacred Hearts of Jesus and Mary, the congregation staffing St. Peter and Paul Church on West Main Street, will speak to the members of the First Friday Luncheon Club, at noon on Nov. 5 at the K of C clubrooms on Thurston Road. The religious will describe the new Soup Kitchen mission which is gaining the parish a great deal of attention for its philosophy and for its growth.

Blue Army

The monthly vigil of the Blue Army of Our Lady of Fatima will open with Mass at 9 p.m., Friday, Nov. 5, at Holy Rosary Church. Leading the three-hour devotion will be Father Rosario LaDelfa, Father John Reif and Father Robert Meng, pastor of Holy Rosary.

Business in Diocese

Michael P. Murphy, a native of Rochester and 1969 graduate of St. John Fisher College, has been appointed associate dean for student academic services at The College of St. Catherine, St. Paul, Minn. The school is a Catholic college for women.

Disabled Vets Open Forget-Me-Not Sale

The Monroe County Powers Post 15 of the Disabled American Veterans is conducting its annual Forget-me-not drive, through Nov. 11.

Mayor Thomas Ryan issued a proclamation recognizing the drive and made the first donation to it on Monday.

The purpose of the drive is to raise money for the benefit of the patients at the VA hospitals in Bath, Batavia and Canandaigua, and to help the Boy Scout Troop at the Al Sigl Center.

The money is used to charter buses to transport patients at the Bath and Batavia hospitals to dinner and sports events, and for recreational activities at the hospitals.

Last year, money was used to buy two televisions, one for Canandaigua and the other for Batavia.

Louis J. Calabria is chairman of the event.

'Stress' Is Topic For Coronary Club

"Stress and Stress Management" will be discussed by Louis A. Fusilli, professor of psychology at Monroe Community College, at the third meeting of the Coronary Club of Rochester, 7:30 p.m., Tuesday, Nov. 9, in the Bishop Kearney Lounge of St. Mary's Hospital.

A club release said that "it is a well substantiated fact that stress is one main cause of hypertension and, at times, the ensuing heart attack."

The club is a national, non-profit group dedicated to providing information on the prevention and progress of cardiac diseases. Members receive various publications including a bi-monthly newsletter, "The Coronary Club Bulletin."

Further information on the club is available from Henry T. Kickey, 175 Selye Terr.,

Rochester, N.Y. (716) 254-0448; or the Cardiac Rehabilitation Center at St. Mary's.

Adoration

The monthly adoration of the Blessed Sacrament will begin at noon Thursday, Nov. 4, at Blessed Sacrament Church. A rosary is recited at 12:15 p.m. and benediction is celebrated at 5 p.m., preceding the regular 5:20 p.m. Mass. The intention of the devotions is for "dedicated spiritual leaders," according to Wilma Higgs, spokesperson for the event.

Diamonds, watches, rings, gold chains, crystal accessories.
Trio Jewelers
Culver Ridge Plaza
266-1755

PREPARE THE WAY OF THE LORD

FROM HERE... TO HERE... READY

ADVENT RETREAT
(for men and women)

Notre Dame Retreat House
Dec. 10 to 12
(7:30 Fri. - Noon Sun.)

For Reservations and/or Information, Write P.O. Box 342, Canandaigua, N.Y. Call (716) 394-5700. Reservations must be in by Nov. 29. Expected offering — $45