

Here's how you can make this the cookieiest Christmas ever!

CHRISTMAS COOKIES are a family project — fun to bake, eat, decorate and give!

From first sniff to last bite, these cookies make everyone's Christmas merrier! tantalizing peanutty aroma wafting from the kitchen brings the first hint of good things to come — for these are sugar cookies with a difference.

Peanut butter chips are the delicious secret ingredient here! And along with the extra goodness, the chips add a bonus of protein, niacin and riboflavin because they're made from real peanuts.

Let the whole family join in the cookie-decorating fun (older children can add dollops of frosting, while little tots will love sprinkling on colored sugar.)

And if these treats don't vanish at once, they make delightful gifts, place-card "markers" or centerpieces (group decorated cookie trees, for instance, on a bank of artificial snow).

PEANUT BUTTER SUGAR COOKIES

- 2 cups (12-ounce package) Reese's Peanut Butter Chips
- 1/2 cup butter or margarine, softened
- 1 cup sugar
- 2 eggs
- 2 teaspoons vanilla extract
- 2 cups unbleached all-purpose flour
- 1 1/2 teaspoons baking soda
- 1/2 teaspoon salt

In top of double boiler over simmering (not boiling) water, melt peanut butter chips; stir until smooth.

In large mixer bowl, cream butter or margarine and sugar until fluffy; add eggs and vanilla.

Beat well; blend in melted chips.

Combine flour, baking soda and salt; blend into creamed mixture.

Cover bowl tightly; chill about one hour or until dough is stiff enough to handle.

Roll dough on lightly floured surface to 1/4-inch thickness; cut into desired shapes with Christmas cookie cutters.

Bake at 375° for 6 to 8 minutes.

Cool on wire rack.

Decorate with frosting, colored sugar, miniature gumdrops.

About 5 dozen cookies.

Early Christmas gift

Why not consider getting a dishwasher as an early family Christmas gift to be used and enjoyed during the busy yuletide season? It will say "Happy Holidays" in the nicest way to your family all year long.

The end result

By counting calories in main meals and using moderation when enjoying holiday desserts, the gift of extra pounds this season won't be yours!
