Christ the King

A Holy Hour of Atonement for those killed by abortion is being sponsored by Christ the King Church, the North Region and the Irondequoit Knights of John Serio and Kathy Miller, eighth graders at St. Rita's School, rehearse for their roles as Joseph and Mary in the parish Christmas celebration at midnight Mass. The pupils were selected for their roles by their fellow classmates, according to Mrs. Margaret Clark.

Columbus, 7:30 p.m., Tuesday, Dec. 28 — the feast of the Holy Innocents — at Christ the King Church, 442 Kings Highway.

The public is invited to the event which will include readings, recitation of the rosary and the celebration of Mass.

According to Jeanne Sweeney, spokesperson for the event, "This region of the diocese has been poignantly reminded of the growing acceptance of abortion this year by the opening of the first freestanding abortion chamber located in this county in the Town of Irondequoit."
