

DEATHS

Sister Mary Sayles, SSJ

Mass of Christian Burial for Sister Mary Sayles of the Sisters of St. Joseph was celebrated Dec. 13 in the motherhouse chapel. Sister Mary Sayles died Dec. 11, 1982, at St. Joseph's Hospital in Elmira. She was 63.

Msgr. William H. Shannon presided at the rites for the Elmira native who entered her congregation in 1950.

She had previously been a manager of a department store in Elmira.

She taught for 12 years in the elementary schools of the diocese, three of them at St. Monica, Rochester; six at St. James, Waverly; and three at St. Aloysius, Auburn.

In 1964 she was named associate purchasing agent for St. Joseph's Hospital, and in 1968 she was named director of the purchasing department, a post she held for 17 years.

She is survived by three brothers, John of New field, Conn., Francis of Rocky Hill, N.J., George of Pine City; and one sister, Mrs. William (Helena) Jackson of Vestal.

Sister Mary St. Mark McMahon

Mass of Christian Burial for Sister M. St. Mark McMahon of the Sisters of St. Joseph was celebrated Dec. 14. Sister M. St. Mark died Dec. 11, 1982, at the age of 83 after a long illness.

Msgr. William H. Shannon presided at the liturgy, concelebrated by Fathers Peter Bayer, John Cavanaugh, CSB, Frederick Helfrich, Leonard Kelly and Msgr. William M. Roche.

A native of Oswego, Sister M. St. Mark entered the Sisters of St. Joseph from St. Mary's Parish there in 1919. She earned her baccalaureate degree from Nazareth College and her master's degree in special education from Syracuse University. She taught and administered schools in the diocese for 50 years.

In 1954, she was awarded a Certificate of Meritorious Service to Public Education in New York State for her "lifelong devotion to the welfare of underprivileged and handicapped children." In 1967, she was listed in the fifth edition of "Who's Who in American Women."

Her teaching career included the following: St. Francis de Sales, Geneva; Blessed Sacrament, Rochester; Corpus Christi, Rochester; Nazareth Academy, Rochester; and Immaculate Conception, Ithaca.

She also served as principal at Immaculate Conception, Rochester, for six years, during which time she began classes in special education. From these classes evolved the School of the Holy Childhood, for which she served as first principal and administrator.

On her death, the congregation said, "Sister St. Mark was a true educator, totally devoted to the welfare of the children she taught. She instilled in them a love for God, for their country and a desire to become all they could be with their individual gifts and talents."

She is survived by nieces, nephews and cousins.
