

AT YOUR PARISH

Cathedral

The adult education program of Sacred Heart Cathedral will open its Spring semester Jan. 31 and Feb. 1 with four offerings, two day time and two evening courses.

Father Sebastian Falcone, president and dean of St. Bernard's Institute, will lead "Christ Cameos," a seven-session course focusing on various images used in Scripture to interpret the person and message of Jesus. The course will meet 8-10 p.m. on Monday nights beginning Jan. 31 in Sacred Heart School hall. Participants will need to bring Bibles.

Father John S. Hayes, former rector of the Cathedral, will return to offer "Moral Vision in Recent English Novels," a four session course exploring the works of Evelyn Waugh, Flannery O'Connor, Graham Greene and Muriel Spark for the moral dimensions they uncover in contemporary problems. The course will meet 8-10 p.m. Tuesdays beginning Feb. 1 in the rectory hall.

Patricia Di Fabio, religious education coordinator at the St. Rita

West Webster — The annual Communion breakfast for women only sponsored by the St. Rita Society will be held following the 9:15 a.m. Mass, Sunday, Feb. 6, at Antonio's Restaurant on

Holy Apostles

The Rosary Society of Holy Apostles Parish will hear a special talk from Msgr. J. Emmett Murphy at the Cathedral, will lead six discussion sessions on Bishop Matthew H. Clark's pastoral letter on women in the Church, "The Fire in the Thornbush." The discussions will run 9:15-11:15 a.m. on six Wednesdays beginning Feb. 2. No registration fee will be charged for this course and baby sitting will be provided.

Father Robert L. Muhlneckel, associate pastor, will lead a group through the experience of "Praying the Scriptures," a six-session program of reading Scripture in prayer, and examining the different ways to use Scripture in prayer. The course will be offered 1:30-2:30 p.m. on Mondays starting Jan. 31, in the rectory recreation room. Provision is made for class members who attend the 12:10 p.m. Mass that day to gather directly afterwards for coffee, tea, and discussion before class begins. Participants are welcome to bring bag lunches.

Registration may be made by calling 647-1900, but it also will be taken at the first session of each class. The fee for the evening classes is $6, and $3 for the daytime.

Empire Blvd. Sister Barbara Moore, RSM, will speak on jail ministry. Tickets at $4.25 each are reserved before Feb. 2 by calling Bev Schnorr, 671-1160, or Pat Grossi, 671-7128.

monthly meeting of the group, following the 9:30 a.m. Mass, Sunday, Feb. 6.

Holy Apostles/ Holy Family

Bishop Matthew H. Clark will join parishioners, parents, faculty and children of Holy Apostles/Holy Family for a special liturgy opening the parish celebration of Catholic Schools Week, 10 a.m., Monday, Feb. 7, at the school auditorium.

A special invitation was issued to parishioners at both churches to attend the event, which also includes a day during which parents may visit classrooms, view displays and watch teachers work. The open house will continue for the remainder of the week.

The invitation stated, "It is the living Church, the Mystical Body of Christ, that gives life to Catholic education. For it is the Church's members who have kept it alive — parents who want this God-centered education for their children, and all those registered parishioners, whether or not they have children in the school, who monetarily support their Church."

Our Lady of Mercy

A family spaghetti supper will be served by the Rosary Society of Our Lady of Mercy Parish, 36 Armstrong Road. Cocktails will be poured at 6 p.m. and supper served at 6:30 p.m., Monday, Feb. 27. Tickets at $4 for adults and $2.50 for children under 12, are available only by calling Betty Heinsler, 663-4637, or Gail Ditotto, 663-6881, before Jan. 28. No tickets will be sold at the door.

St. Mary

Bath — The Home-School Association of St. Mary's School will hold a craft and antique fair and flea market, 11 a.m. to 4 p.m., Saturday, March 5. Space is still available for exhibitors. An exhibitor's fee of $10 provides for 36 square feet and two tables, if required. Pre-registration is required and tables will be assigned on a first come, first served basis. Further information is available by contacting Ginny Gallagher, (607) 776-6810, or Dennis Pedley, (607) 776-9830.

St. Salome

The Cub Scout Pack 47 of St. Salome's School is now registering eight- and nine-year-old boys for the 1983 season. Further information is available by calling George Manning, 467-6749.

Holy Trinity

Rachel Adam, daughter of Mrs. Janet Adam of Plank Road, a sixth grader at Holy Trinity School, displays her E.T. doll, given her as third prize in the Marine Midland E.T. Essay Contest recently. More than 1,500 essays were received in the event. With Rachel is her teacher, Miss Renee Gefell.

St. Vincent

Corning — A round and square dance, "The Super Bowl Stomp," has been slated by St. Vincent's parish council for 9 p.m. to 1 a.m., Saturday, Jan. 29, in the school hall. Music will be provided by the Bob Bennett Orchestra. Beer, set-ups and a buffet dinner will highlight the evening. Tickets are $5 per person and are purchased from parish council members, by calling 982-8381, or at the door.

ANTIQUE SHOW AND SALE — Sponsored by Our Lady of Mercy High School's Alumnae Association, will be from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., Saturday and Sunday, Jan. 29-30, at the school, 1437 Blossom Road. There is a donation of $1.50. Above, Joseph and Rosemary Haselmaier Bayer (a Mercy Alumna) display some merchandise that will be for sale.

SENIOR MATINEE — "Father of the Bride," starring Spencer Tracy and Elizabeth Taylor, 1:30 p.m., Thursday, Jan. 27, George Eastman House.

KILBOURN HALL — Faculty recital featuring Abram Loft, violin; Maria Lujsa Faini, piano, presenting music of Mozart, 8 p.m., Wednesday, Jan. 26; Eastman-Ranlet Concert, featuring Cleveland Quartet, 3 p.m., Sunday, Jan. 30. Free.

MUSIC — The Eastman

School of Music Intermusica (chamber music group) presents concert, 8 p.m., Sunday, Jan. 30, Nazareth College Arts Center. Free.

INFO MEETING — The Monroe County Association for Retarded Citizens Informational Fair about ARC will be 4:30-7:30 p.m., Tuesday, Feb. 8, at 1000 Elmwood Ave.

SHOW OPENING — "Art for Black History Month" featuring nine area black artists, reception 8-10 p.m., Friday, Feb. 4, first floor lobby, Nazareth College Arts Center. Will run through Feb. 27. Free.

ART — Penfield Art Association exhibit Friday, Feb. 4 to 27, foyer, Nazareth College Arts Center. Free.

Bristol Mountain.
If you can find a better
mountain—ski it!

Treat yourself to something special. Ski Bristol!

No matter what the weatherman comes up with, Bristol Mountain will deliver more snow this season than ever before, and our unmatched grooming fleet does the rest... fast!

From the very top of our 1100-foot vertical rise, down 18 slopes and trails, Bristol Mountain packs in the pluses that add up to great skiing all season long.

- Regions largest snowmaking system.
- 95% lighted for night skiing.
- New snow-grooming vehicle with Powertiller.
- 3 double chairs, 1 triple chair and 2 surface lifts.
- Equipment rental & repair shop.
- Complete ski resort facilities including cafeteria, lounge, picnic area and nursery.
- Ski Fares, Shift Passes, Specials and our famed 8- or 4-hour start-anytime passes available.

Bristol Mountain
Delivers

Route 64 Canandaigua, N.Y. 14424
(716) 374-6331
Snow Phones (716) 374-6421 or 271-5000