

Marriage Is Worldwide Belief

Your marriage is our business! Why? Because we're married and we love it. What you do with your marriage effects all of us. Of course what we do with our marriage effects you also.

we are right there beside you. God is right there with you. We believe in you, we believe in us, and we believe that as married couples we can make a difference in our Church and in our world.

proclaiming this day publicly. It's time we as married couples stand up and shout from the roof-tops how great our Sacrament of Matrimony is. Come join us celebrate "us" on Feb. 12 at Marketplace Mall.

God bless you all,

We all have a stake in each other. In fact, the whole Church has a stake in us. As married couples we are pretty special people. We are a Sacrament in the flesh. We are one of seven specific ways that Jesus has chosen to reveal Himself — His love for us — to the whole Church. In fact, to the world. We are special. We have been called to a special vocation, but we are not alone in our journey.

Throughout the country, Feb. 14, Valentine's Day, is being celebrated as "We believe in World Marriage Day." Governors and mayors of cities are

Our relationship as husband and wife is our prime focus. Each day we want to strive to love each other more and more, and the more we love one another, the more we'll be able to love our family, our children, our Church, our God. And to help us do this, we have been given special graces. Special graces of the Sacrament of Matrimony. It's those special graces that help us to live out our call to be a couple, a couple who is madly, passionately in love with one another. It's a call to be different from the rest of the world — it's a call to intimacy with each other — it's a call to be romantic with one another. It's a call to believe that our Sacrament of Matrimony, our love relationship, is God's plan for us — that what He wants most for us is to love one another as totally as we possibly can.
