

DEATHS

Peter J. Connelly Jr.

Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated Dec. 31 for Peter J. Connelly Jr., who died Dec. 27, 1982, after a long illness.

The Cathedral of the Sacred Heart was filled for the rites concebrated by Fathers Robert O'Neill and Robert Miller. The intensely admired defense attorney who was known for both the depth and swiftness of his wit died at the age of 70.

In his eulogy, Father O'Neill commented: "He seemed to be at his best, in his favorite situation, when he had an audience around him who would listen to him and with whom he could converse. All in that group — the great, the famous, the powerful, or the ordinary man on the street — realized that Peter respected all equally and treated all with his very profound sense of justice . . .

Indeed, he is that rare person who seems not to have had an enemy on earth."

Mr. Connelly was baptized in St. Cecilia's Church in New York City by a young curate, Father James E. Kearney, who was later to rise in the hierarchy to shepherd the Diocese of Rochester.

Still an infant, Mr. Connelly, moved to Rochester with his family, and later attended Corpus Christi Church and school, and Aquinas Institute. He took his degree from Notre Dame University, an institution he enthusiastically supported throughout his career.

A member of the Monroe County Bar Association, the St. Thomas More Lawyer's Guild, the Sacred Heart Cathedral's Men's Club, he was also a member of the University of Notre Dame Men's Club. In addition, he held a membership in the Chancery Society of Albany

Law School and the Knights of Columbus.

He is survived by his wife, Dorothy Hart Connelly; daughters and sons-in-law, Marcia and Richard Sullivan, Honora and Fred Harrington; three grandsons, Michael Sullivan, Ian Andrew Harrington, and Justin Peter Harrington; two brothers, Robert E. and Francis X. Connelly; two sisters, Catherine Toole and Helen Connelly; a sister-in-law, Anne Connelly, and several nieces and nephews.
