

Medal Winners

Six members of Cadette Troop 578 were presented the Marian Medal at the 9:30 a.m. Mass on Sunday, March 6, at Holy Ghost Church. The six, all students at Holy Ghost School, are, from left, Danielle Mc-Conkey, Jennifer Sickles, Nichole Bianchi, Michelle Stalker, Debbie DiRose and Kendra Bush. The award is the official recognition of the Catholic Church for girls enrolled in the Girl Scouts of America, and is conferred only after completion of an extensive study program.

RPO To Play In Israel Salute

The Rochester Philharmonic Orchestra and the Rochester Oratorio Society will perform a concert in honor of Israel's 35th anniversary at the Eastman Theatre on Sunday, April 17. Sponsored by the Jewish Community Federation and five other community organizations.

David Zinman will conduct a program of symphonic music by Prokofiev, Bloch, Bernstein, and by the Israeli composer, Paul Ben Haim. Tickets are available at the Jewish Community Federation and the Jewish Community Center. Prices range from $35 for patrons' tickets, which includes a champagne reception following the concert, to $20, $15, $10 and $5 for senior citizens, and $3 for student tickets. Long Term Care Benefits
Now Expanded by

ACCESS: Medicare

This new, improved benefit program is planned to help you get needed long-term care.

Here's How It Works:

New!

- Provides an additional 100 days of nursing home care and 100 days of home care services above and beyond traditional Medicare benefits.
- Waives the three-day hospital stay that has been required under Medicare to be eligible for admission to a nursing home.
- Changes Medicare eligibility criteria to allow more people to be eligible for Medicare benefits.
- Requires no deductibles or co-payments for services while you are receiving ACCESS: Medicare benefits.

Who's eligible for ACCESS: Medicare?

To be eligible, you must:

- Have a Medicare card, live in Monroe County, and be at least 18 years old.
- Have long term health care needs.
- Meet the medical eligibility criteria determined by ACCESS: Medicare.
