

NFP Graduates First Southern Tier Group

Elmira — Dr. and Mrs. David Mousaw and Mr. and Mrs. Barry Snyder have completed the instructor training program, and Mr. and Mrs. Dale Brahbam, Dr. James Mark and Mr. and Mrs. David Spring have completed the community educator training program of Natural Family Planning of the Southern Tier.

They are the first class of community educators and instructors. Graduation ceremonies were held March 20 at St. Joseph's Hospital. Richard O'Hair, president of the local NFP group, and Father Francis Blighton of St. Mary Our Mother Church in Horseheads spoke at the ceremonies.

Further information on NFP is obtained from the

NFP office, 480 Main St., Big Flats; 562-3331.

Instructors for this training phase were Mr. and Mrs. Nick Iven.

In other developments, an informational meeting on NFP will be held 7 p.m.

Thursday, March 31, in the Doctors Meeting Room of St. Joseph's. David and Kathy Springs of Elmira will lead the presentation. Further information is available by contacting Hollie Snyder, (607) 562-3331.

St. George/Pelican Given

Ten men and women Scout leaders were given St. George Awards and the Bronze Pelican was presented to a priest by Auxiliary Bishop Dennis W. Hickey at the 36th annual St. George Awards Dinner. More than 225 people were present for the event. Honored were (left to right), rear: Leonard L. Sathre, Robert P. Fisher, John P. Reeder, Frank Schlaffer, John Mullan, Edward Chlebowski; (front) Sheila Wellman, Father John Gagnier, Bishop Hickey, Rose M. Sonner and Albert Climer. Absent for the picture was Joseph S. Bumbalo.

Linguists

Special Day

The Nazareth College Alumni Association is planning a "Children's Day," including a play, "Reasons for Being Cheerful," presented by the famous Paper Bag Players of New York City. Lunch and a swim also are in the program being planned by co-chairmen Maureen McPherson and Shelia Knipper, above. The "day" will begin at 11 a.m. and run to 3 p.m. Further details are available from the alumni office, 586-2525, ext. 390.

Potential Leaders Meet

Bishop Kearney's Student Council sponsored a leadership conference for future leaders of BK on Wednesday and Thursday, March 16-17. Several students from each club and sport program were chosen by the moderator or coach to represent their particular group.

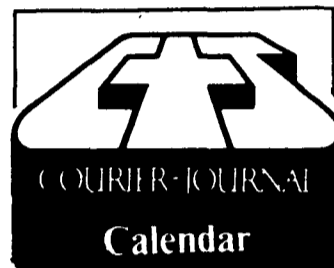

The conference began with an introductory speech by Lynette Manuse, Student Council president, followed by an ice breaker and discussion. On March 17, more discussions were held, along with a role playing situation. Mike Perrotta, former BK Student Council president and now president of Student Affairs at Monroe Community College, was guest speaker. He spoke on the importance of strong school and community leadership.

The conference ended with an evaluation of the workshop and the planning of activities for the remainder of the year
