

Two Carmelite Nuns Note Golden Jubilees

Sister Teresa of Jesus and Sister Alberta of the Mother of God, both members of the Carmelite cloister on Jefferson Road, will celebrate their golden jubilees in the convent, 9:30 a.m., April 16, at the monastery.

Auxiliary Bishop Dennis W. Hickey will preside at the Mass of Thanksgiving, assisted by priest friends of the community, including two nephews of Sister Teresa. Her nephews are Father Bernard Dooley, SJ, and Father Emmett Halloran, pastor of St. Charles Borromeo. The choir of that parish will sing during the rites.

Sister Alberta is the great aunt of Sister Ann Dobberty, SSJ, who will be one of the lectors.

Relatives and friends are welcome at the Mass and may visit briefly with the jubilarians after Mass, in the afternoon of that day, and 2:30-4 p.m. the following day.

A spokesperson for the monastery commented:

"People sometimes wonder if Carmelite life, with its silence and solitude and its consequent separation from the affairs and activities of the world, is not out-moded today, when there is so much need for dedicated active workers in God's vineyard. No pope has been more indefatigable than our present Holy Father in pointing out the obligation of all to respond in justice and compassion to the cry of the poor and sick and suffering of the world.

"Yet, when he met with Carmelite nuns at Lisieux, he told them that 'in a world that is losing the sense of the divine, in the light of the overestimation of material things, you must be witnesses to the Lord for the world of today, and with your prayer instill a new breath of life into the Church and into modern man."

"The place, then, of a Carmelite is at the heart of the Church, fulfilling there the function of the heart, sharing in the activities of her diocese, animating them and making them fruitful through love. The truth is that the world is, and will always be, in need of prayer.

"It was with this conviction in mind that the two jubilarians began their Carmelite life, and now after 50 years of lived experience of their vocation, they can testify that it has been a blessed and happy way of serving God and neighbor. The world today needs hope desperately; contemplative life with its gaze fixed on God is a supreme witness to hope."
