

Sister Shirley Pilot Heads RIT Chaplains

Sister Shirley Pilot, SSJ, a Rochester Institute of Technology campus minister since 1972, has been named director of RIT's Campus Ministry by Dr. Barry Culhane, assistant vice principal for campus life. Director of the diocesan Department of Campus Ministry, Sister Shirley also chairs the New York State Diocesan Director's Board of Campus Ministry.

A graduate of Nazareth College, she holds a master's degree in education from the University of Rochester.

She taught elementary, junior and senior high school, and served as placement director at Nazareth College before she went to Brazil as a pastoral worker in the Sisters of St. Joseph missions there.

A member of the editorial committee designed to draft a pastoral letter on campus ministries, Sister Shirley was also a member of Bishop Matthew H. Clark's task force on women in the Church.

SISTER SHIRLEY

Sister Shirley replaces Father Gerald Appelby at the RIT post. Father Appelby has been named pastor of the new Church of the Transfiguration Parish by Bishop Clark.

CYO Plans Workshops

CYO Youth Employment Services is sponsoring a series of career workshops for people 14-21 at the CYO, 11th floor, 50 Chestnut St., from 3 to 4:30 p.m., Monday, May 23, through Thursday, May 26.

The workshops are designed to assist young people in making decisions about their futures and in gaining the job-seeking skills needed.

The sessions are part of CYO's Career Exploration Project which involves youths in unpaid work experiences in order to obtain skills, work references, school credits, employment contacts and job qualifications.

Further information is available from Lovie Smith or Gabe Bauza at 454-2030.

Hornell Man Takes Missioner's Degree

Epworth, Iowa — Augustine Wall graduated with a BA degree from Divine Word College here last week. Wall is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Wall of Glen Avenue in Hornell.

AUGUSTINE WALL

The college is described as "the nation's only Roman Catholic college-level training center specifically and exclusively devoted young men for Church careers in Third World countries and among deprived minorities in the United States.

Wall majored in social science with a history concentration. His minor was cross-cultural studies.

At the school, Wall was treasurer of the student senate and was student representative to the faculty council.

The institution is conducted by the Society of the Divine Word, a missionary order of almost 6,000 members serving in 35 countries
