

Young Adult Conference

Some 40 diocesans participated last Saturday in an educational forum titled "Young Adults: The Hidden Light," at the University of Rochester Interfaith Chapel. The workshop was sponsored by the diocesan commission on Young Adult Ministry in conjunction with the University of Rochester Newman Community. Keynote speaker for the all-day program was Father Ronald Bagley, right, director of the Young Adult Ministry office in Buffalo. Themes of the workshops offered included spirituality, sexuality, careers, and nuclear arms.

Cenacle to Offer 'Effective Living'

One of the Cenacle Renewal Center's most popular programs, the Effective Living Seminar, has been slated for June 17-19 at the center, 693 East Ave. The program "offers an opportunity to raise your self-concept, to learn to set goals, and to overcome negative habit patterns," according to Rosemarie Schaeffer, Cenacle spokesperson. Leading the seminar will be Sisters Shirley Kitagawa and Arline Brent, both members of the Cenacle community. Reservations and further information are available by contacting the Cenacle Ministry Office, (716) 271-8755.

New Health Center Opened by Westside

The Westside Health Services new Woodward Health Center was formally dedicated Saturday at 480 Genesee St.

Highlighting the ceremony was a national award to Dr. Kenneth Woodward, a prominent Rochester physician who founded the neighborhood health center concept here and for whom the new center is named. He was presented with the National Association of Community Health Centers' annual award for excellence.

Also honored were Virginia Sommerville, a longtime patient of Westside Health Services, and Lester Holcomb of Florida, executive director of Westside who was instrumental in opening the new center.

The center actually opened for patient care in February and provides medical, dental, counseling and social services primarily to residents of the city's 3rd, 11th and 19th wards. It replaces Westside's former Millbank facility.

In addition to providing complete primary medical and dental care, Westside's community health care concept offers social and counseling services including a teen program, specialized refugee health services and an infant development program. Westside also operates two drop-in neighborhood storefront health education programs at 622 Jefferson Ave. and 210 Lyell Ave.

In addition, Westside operates the Brown Square Health Center on Lyell Avenue. Westside is part of the Rochester Health Network, a network of community health centers and Monroe Plan physicians serving greater Rochester.

Westside has contracted with St. Mary's Hospital for management of the centers and their outreach program.
