

PROCLAIM

... AND MAKE DISCIPLES OF ALL THE NATIONS

(Matt. 28:19)

The Catholic Communication Campaign is one way the bishops of the United States help PROCLAIM God's Word and carry out the church's mission AND MAKE DISCIPLES OF ALL THE NATIONS (Matt. 28:19).

Here are just a few of the projects the Campaign has funded:

- A pilot project involving 15,000 Catholic schoolchildren in 11 dioceses to test a media literacy program in elementary junior and senior high schools.
- Videocassettes for the National Catholic Educational Association to train teachers of handicapped children.
- Seed grant to Our Sunday Visitor, Inc., to start Sunday magazine, a monthly supplement for diocesan newspapers.
- Feasibility study funds for the Catholic Telecommunications Network of America. Last September, CTNA went on the air with radio and TV programs, as well as communications services to 33 U.S. dioceses, parochial schools, hospitals, and Catholic religious communities.
- Matching funds for an Oblate Fathers conference to train Hispanic leaders in communications ministry.
- Matching grants for the development of both commercial and public television documentaries on black migrants, women in the church, elderly poor, and the lives of Dorothy Day, Thomas Merton, Archbishop Oscar Romero.

In just four years, the Catholic Communication Campaign has raised more than $15 million for Catholic communications ministries. Half went to fund national projects like those listed above, but 50% stayed in the diocese or archdiocese to support similar activities on the local level.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR CONTINUING SUPPORT.

PROCLAMAR

... Y HACER DISCÍPULOS DE TODAS LAS NACIONES

La Campaña Católica de Comunicación es una vía mediante la cual los obispos de los Estados Unidos contribuyen a PROCLAMAR la Palabra de Dios y llevar a cabo la misión de la iglesia Y HACER DISCÍPULOS DE TODAS LAS NACIONES (Mat. 28:19)

Se incluyen a continuación algunos de los proyectos financiados por la Campaña:

- Un proyecto piloto que comprende a 15.000 escolares de escuelas católicas en once diócesis, destinado a probar un programa de alfabetización en escuelas primarias y secundarias.
- Videocassettes para la Asociación Nacional para la Educación Católica (National Catholic Educational Association), para capacitar maestros de niños impedidos.
- Una donación inicial para Our Sunday Visitor, Inc., para iniciar la publicación de la revista Sunday, un suplemento mensual de los periódicos diocesanos.
- Fondos para un estudio de factibilidad de la Red Católica de Telecomunicaciones de América (CTNA). En septiembre del año pasado, la CTNA comenzó la propagación de programas radiales y televisivos, servicios de comunicaciones a 33 diócesis de los Estados Unidos, escuelas parroquiales, hospitales y comunidades religiosas católicas.
- Fondos de contrapartida para una conferencia de Padres Oblatos, destinada a capacitar a dirigentes hispanicos en materia de comunicaciones.
- Fondos de contrapartida para el desarrollo de películas documentales de televisión sobre obreros negros migratorios, la mujer en la iglesia, y películas biográficas sobre Dorothy Day, Thomas Merton y el Arzobispo Oscar Romero.

En sólo cuatro años, la Campana Católica de Comunicación ha recaudado más de $15 millones para las comunicaciones católicas. La mitad de esos recursos permitió financiar proyectos de alcance nacional como los señalados, pero un 50% de los mismos permaneció en las diócesis o arquidiócesis para apoyar actividades similares en el orden local.

AGRADECEMOS SU APOYO CONTINUO.
