

DRAFTING COMMITTEE—A happy Cardinal Joseph L. Bernardin of Chicago thanks the U.S. bishops after they voted 238-9 to accept the pastoral letter on war and peace. Cardinal Bernardin, who chaired the committee drafting the letter, is flanked by other committee members, from left, Bishop George A. Fulcher of Lafayette, Ind., Bishop John J. O'Conner of Scranton, Pa., Fr. Bryan

Hehir, U.S. Catholic Conference staff person who assisted the bishops, Auxiliary Bishop Thomas Gumbleton of Detroit, and Bishop Daniel Patrick Reilly of Norwich, Conn. Consultants to the bishops along with Fr. Hehir were Fr. Richard Warner, CSC, Sr. Juliana Casey, IHM, Bruce Martin Russett, Yale University, and Edward Doherty, U.S. Catholic Conference. (NC News Service).

Witnesses Who Appeared Before the Committee

Former Government Officials:

Harold Brown, secretary of defense in the Carter administration; secretary of the Air Force in the Johnson administration; James Schlesinger, secretary of defense in the Nixon-Ford administrations; director of the CIA in the Nixon administration; secretary of energy in the Carter administration; Gerard Smith, chief of the U.S. delegation to the SALT I negotiations for President Nixon; ambassador-at-large and special presidential representative for non-proliferation for President Carter; Helmut Sonnenfeldt, counselor to the Department of State in the Nixon-Ford administration; Herbert Scoville, deputy director of the CIA; arms control specialist; David Linebaugh, analyst of the Arms Control and Disarmament Agency; arms control specialist; Roger Molander, specialist for nuclear weapons policy on the national security staff for the Carter administration; executive director of Ground Zero program.

Moral Theologians-Ethicists:

Dr. William O'Brien, professor of government and international law, Georgetown University; Rev. Frank Winters, SJ, assistant professor of ethics, Georgetown University School of Foreign Service; Dr. Gordon Zahn, professor emeritus, University of Massachusetts; Pax Christi board of directors; Rev. Francis Meehan, professor of moral theology, St. Charles Seminary;

Philadelphia; member of Pax Christi; Dr. Ralph Potter, professor of social ethics, Harvard Divinity School; Dr. Alan Geyer, director, Center for Theology and Public Policy; James Finn, author; editor at Freedom House; Dr. Paul Ramsey, professor of Christian ethics, Princeton University; Rev. Charles Curran, professor of moral theology, Catholic University; Rev. Joseph Fuchs, SJ, professor of moral theology, Gregorian University; visiting professor, Kennedy Institute, Washington, D.C.; Rev. John Langan, SJ, assistant professor of philosophy, Georgetown University; staff associate, Woodstock Theological Institute; George Weigel, author, columnist, staff associate, World Without War Council.

Scripture Scholars:

Rev. Donald Senior, CP, professor of New Testament; Chicago Theological Union; Sister Sandra Schneiders, IHM, professor of New Testament, Jesuit School of Theology, Berkeley; Rev. Roland Murphy, O. Carm., professor of Old Testament Studies, Duke University; Rev. William Heidt, OSB, professor of Old Testament, Holy Apostles Seminary, Cromwell, Conn.

Catholic Peace Organizations:

Thomas Cornell, Catholic Peace Fellowship; Molly Rush, Thomas Merton Center, Pittsburgh; one of the "Plowshares Eight"; Sister Mary Collins, Benedictines for Peace; assistant professor of religious studies, Catholic University; Robert Aldridge, author and engineer.

Conflict Resolution and Peace Studies:

Dr. Roger Fisher, professor of law, Harvard University; Dr. Gene Sharp, Harvard Center for International Affairs.

Retired Military Personnel:

Gen. George Seignious, USA (Ret.), director, Arms Control and Disarmament Agency in the Carter administration; Adm. Noel Gaylor, USN (Ret.), writer on nuclear weapons policy.

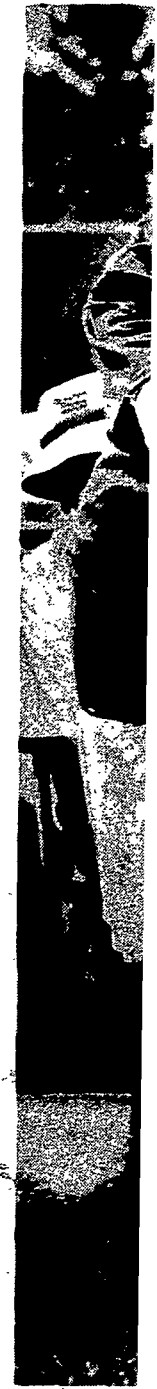

Physician:

Dr. James Muller, Harvard Medical School; International Physicians for the Prevention of Nuclear War.

Officials of the U.S. Government:

Caspar Weinberger, secretary of defense; Lawrence Eagleberger, undersecretary of state for political affairs; Eugene Rostow, director, Arms Control and Disarmament Agency; Ambassador Edward Rowny, General USA (Ret.), chief of U.S. delegation to the START negotiations.

C Su

The I
Alice Gill
Methodis
tion dur annual S
the Park residents nursing Church I Nursing
Monroe
Home, S
John's H

Fr. J
Dies
In E Elmira were celebr and Friday
J. Leary w 1983, nine anniversary
Bishop I Syracuse,
classmate,
Mass of Priest on Harrison
Matthew I
W. Hicke
Hogan fo
Christian E
The son
Mary Sw
born in G attended School ar School.
He went and St. Be