

AT YOUR PARISH!

Mother of Sorrows

A parish family education program at Our Mother of Sorrows Church will open with a parish celebration, 4-8 p.m., Sunday, Sept. 18. Parents meetings for the various sacramental programs will be expanded and all parishioners will be welcomed and encouraged to attend. Instruction will be provided at different levels, for young children through adults. Included will be the sacraments of Penance, Eucharist and Confirmation, as well as programs with Thanksgiving and Advent themes. These programs will be held monthly on Sunday afternoons, and will include a tureen supper.

In addition, several evenings are planned for the adults of the parish. Deacon Daniel and Sheila Kinsky will address the question, "How can we as Christian families live Jesus' message of peace and justice in our home, community and the world?" 7:30-9:30 p.m., Sept. 25 and Oct. 28. Father Sebastian Falcone will present "The Eucharist in Johannine Perspective," Feb. 26 and Dennis and Dee Stemmler will address the topic of "Communication in Marriage," May 20.

St. Anne

Palmyra — "The God-Man Relationship — How God Communicates," will be the topic of talks given by Father Eugene Weis, pastor of St. Anne's Church, 7:30 p.m., Monday, Sept. 19. The talk will cover such sources of revelation as the Bible, Sacred Tradition, and the Person of Jesus. The purpose of the series, given by both Father Weis and Sister Kathleen McCarthy, is to present the latest in current doctrine for Catholics and those wishing to know more about issues and questions. The sessions include both time for prayer and time for questions.

St. Michael

Penn Yan — Word was received last week that the Catholic Daughters Court St. Michael will sponsor a tureen supper 6:30 p.m., tonight, Sept. 14 in the St. Michael's Church hall. Each member is encouraged to attend and bring a dish to pass.

In addition, also this evening, members of the sixth grade class at St. Michael's School are sponsoring a community roller skating party, 7-9 p.m., in Penn Yan Academy. Tickets are $2.25 per person and are available from any sixth grader or at the door. The public is invited to the event.

Holy Rosary

"Jesus Comes to Heal" will be the theme for this year's Mass for Anointing of the Sick, 3 p.m., Sunday, Sept. 25 at Holy Rosary Church. Particularly invited to the event are those persons with a serious illness or chronic physical condition that could result in a shortening of their life and those who are growing weaker due to old age. Persons in need of transportation are asked to contact the parish rectory, 458-4422.

St. Rita

West Webster — "When Death Comes," an adult education series featuring film, panel discussion and lectures is being presented by St. Rita's adult education committee, 7:30-9:30 p.m., for six consecutive Wednesdays starting Sept. 21, in the audio-visual room of the school. Registration for the series is $5. Further information is available by calling Mary Adamski, 671-6342.

St. John Evangelist

"The Challenge of Peace," a five-part series on the U.S. bishop's peace pastoral letter, will be given by Dr. Marvin Mich of St. Bernard's Institute 7:30 p.m., on five Mondays, starting Sept. 19 (excepting Oct. 3) in room 104 of St. John the Evangelist School, 545 Humboldt St.

St. Thomas Apostle

The Home-School Association of St. Thomas the Apostle School will hold its first Ice Cream Social, 5-8 p.m., Friday, Sept. 23 in the school parking lot, 41 Colerbrook Drive. Also available will be hot dogs, pizza, popcorn, pop, beer, and coffee.

St. Helen

The Altar Rosary Society of St. Helen's Church will hold its installation of officers banquet, starting with cocktails at 6:30 p.m. tonight, Sept. 14 at the Party House. Entertainment will be provided by "The Rainbows."

Mt. Carmel

Former parishioners of Mt. Carmel are invited to a meeting at 7:30 p.m., Monday, Sept. 19, in the school hall to plan the parish's 75th anniversary celebration which will take place in October 1984.

Deadline

Parish correspondents are reminded that items for At Your Parish must be typed and in the Courier-Journal offices before noon on Thursday preceding Wednesday publication. The address is 114 S. Union St., Rochester, N.Y. 14607.

St. Theodore

St. Theodore's Church will conduct a 17-day tour of Italy and Monte Carlo next summer. An information session on the event, complete with refreshments and a travelogue movie will be held 7:30 p.m., Tuesday, Sept. 20 at the school, 170 Spencerport Road. A travel agent and an airline representative will be available for questions. Although the meeting is open to the public, Father Robert J. Schrader, associate pastor, requested that those attending call 458-7846 with the number of those in their party, by Sept. 19.

St. Francis Assisi

Parishioners of St. Francis of Assisi Church, 77 Whitney St. are preparing for a garage sale, 9 a.m.-6 p.m., Friday and Saturday, Sept. 23 and 24; and 9 a.m.-1 p.m., Sunday, Sept. 25 in the parish hall. Donations of resalable and reusable items will be appreciated. Persons wishing to have donations picked up are asked to contact the rectory, 436-6693; Mike Simmonetti, 436-0206; or Vic Leo, 458-4451.

St. James, Waverly

Waverly — According to Father Edward Foy, pastor of St. James Church, enrollment at the parish school has increased this year.

Holy Ghost

Kindergartners and their families were feted at an open house recently in the new kindergarten of Holy Ghost School. Over the course of the Summer, the kindergarten was moved to the South Room of the church, parishioners donated many good, used toys, and teacher Miss Mary Ann Kelly decorated the room to appeal to the children. Mrs. Maggie Marsh is school principal.

St. Nicholas

A Lebanese Dinner, to benefit St. Nicholas Church, will be served 7 p.m., Saturday, Oct. 8 at Bishop Kearney High School. Donation for the event which also will feature music and entertainment, is $15. Reservations are required and are made by calling the pastor, Father Salem Faddoul, 467-8925, before Oct. 3.

St. Joseph

Penfield — A charismatic Mass will be celebrated 5 p.m., Sunday, Sept. 25 at St. Joseph's Church in Penfield. According to Craig Bullock, religious education coordinator, "The emphasis will be on youth, but all are invited."
