

Pope Praises Cdl. Cooke

Castelgandolfo, Italy (NC) - Cardinal Terence Cooke of New York is a "faithful pastor and servant of his people," Pope John Paul II said Sept. 5.

At a meeting with 23 U.S. bishops, the pope paid tribute to Cardinal Cooke, who is dying of leukemia.

Pope John Paul said that he had spoken to the cardinal and written to him "to thank him for what he has been in the church of God - a living sign of Jesus Christ, a faithful pastor and servant of his people, living and willing to die for the church."

The pope said Cardinal Cooke was "a special friend, yes; an illustrious member of the hierarchy of the United States, yes; a faithful collaborator of the Holy See, yes - and yet, simply one of so many holy American bishops who live and die so that Jesus Christ, the good shepherd, may continue to lead his people to the newness of life and the fullness of salvation."

Bishop to Honor Wedding Jubilarians

Canandaigua - Couples celebrating their silver or golden wedding anniversaries in 1983 will be honored at a special celebration with Bishop Matthew H. Clark, 3 p.m., Sunday, Oct. 16, at St. Mary's Church here.

The celebration, which also includes a reception, is sponsored by the diocesan Family Life Office.

Couples are sent an invitation from the bishop through the Family Life Office, and receive a specially inscribed certificate.

The Mass includes a renewal of marriage vows and also provides an opportunity for couples to answer the question: "How has your marriage helped you discover the meaning of faith?"

Couples desiring an invitation are asked to notify their parish offices which then forward names, anniversaries celebrated and addresses to the Family Life Office.

Conference Scheduled

Father John Aurelio, chaplain at the West Seneca Developmental Center for Handicapped Children, will be the main speaker at the Diocesan Teachers' Conference two consecutive Fridays - Sept. 23 at St. Mary Our Mother School, Horseheads; and Sept. 30 at Cardinal Mooney High School.

Over 1100 teachers and administrators are expected to participate in various workshops on the Church, scripture, sacraments and Christian morality/social justice.

The group will also be addressed by Sister Roberta Tierney, SSND, director of the Division of Education in the diocese, and Sister Edwardine Weaver, RSM, superintendent of Catholic schools.

Deadline

Items intended for publication in At Your Parish must be written and at the Courier-Journal offices, 114 South Union St., Rochester, N.Y. 14607, before noon of Thursday preceding Wednesday publication.
