

Nursing School Schedules Open House

Elmira -- St. Joseph's Hospital School of Nursing will have an open house from 2 to 4 p.m., Sunday, Sept. 25, at the Dunn Memorial Building. Prospective students and their families are invited to attend the event which will include career information and tours of the school and facilities. Faculty members and students will be present to answer questions and information also will be available for persons who are considering nursing as a second or midlife career.

'Kisses for Kids!'

The CURE Childhood Cancer Association of Rochester has scheduled its annual "Kisses for Kids" fund-raising drive the weekend of Sept. 30-Oct. 2.

Volunteers will be at the mall entrances of McCurdy stores at Midtown, Marketplace, Long Ridge, Eastview, Northgate, Irondequoit and Geneva shopping centers Friday and Saturday. Other volunteers and teen groups will also conduct the "Kisses for Kids" drive at a number of churches in the greater Rochester area.

Recalling the saying that "a kiss makes an ouch feel better," CURE volunteers will be offering chocolate kisses to the public for donations. Funds go to an endowment fund which provides financial assistance to families of children with cancer; with parent/child counseling and the Parent/Child handbook, with family activities and the funding of staff positions at Strong Memorial Hospital.

CURE has provided the furnishings, toys, games, television set and video game used in the "Quiet Room" at Strong.

Parishes Introduced To Appeal

More than 120 representatives of the area's western parishes attended a leadership seminar for the 1983 Thanks Giving Appeal last Thursday night at Our Mother of Sorrows Church Hall. The meeting was one of five scheduled across the diocese introducing parish coordinators to the goals of this year's drive. Other meetings were held for the Rochester area's eastern parishes, and also in Auburn, Dansville and Horseheads. Left, John Greisberger, diocesan general chairman, addresses the crowd. The goal of the appeal this year is $2,729,000.

Bishop Hogan Will Lead Holy Year Peace Rosary

Canandaigua — Bishop Joseph L. Hogan, retired Bishop of Rochester, will lead the Yates-Ontario-Wayne Region in a rosary for peace at the region's celebration of the Holy Year of Redemption, 7:30 p.m., Oct. 7, the feast of the Holy Rosary, at St. Mary's Church here.

The rites, according to Father William Michatek, regional coordinator and pastor of St. Michael's Church in Penn Yan, will follow the form of a scriptural rosary concluding with benediction.

The public is invited to the event, he said, which combines Marian devotion with prayer for world peace. Father Michatek indicated that Father Thomas Nellis is developing the evening rites.

'REC' Weekend Set at Auburn

The third "Residents Encounter Christ" weekend has been scheduled Oct. 7, 8 and 9 at Auburn Correctional Facility.

Volunteers from all over the diocese, headed by Vince Phillips of Rochester, have been meeting since August to plan the event.

Team members have issued an invitation to adults, both men and women, to participate in a hootenany at the prison, Saturday, Oct. 8.

Persons interested in the program are asked to contact the following for further information or to make reservations: Bob Bacher, 2481 Huber Road, Fairport, 14450; Joe Amoia, 44 Cottage St., Auburn, 13021;
