Papers Are Needed

The Cardinal Mooney Action for People Association will host its annual paper drive from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m., Saturday Oct. 1. Papers may be dropped off in the rear of the school on the day of the drive. Call the school at 865-1000 the day of the drive if you need to have your papers picked up. Funds from this event will be given to Mother Theresa of Calcutta for use in her local missions. Heading this year's AFPA are: Maureen Burke, secretary; Mary DeMarle, president; Holly Leger, vice president; David Mead, treasurer; and Miss Susan Kroubalkian, moderator.

Winner's Circle

Rap Around weekly will run a photo of a group of students taken somewhere in the diocese. One person will be circled and if that person brings the clipping to the Courier-Journal before noon of the Tuesday following our publication date, he or she will receive $5. This week's photo was taken at Nazareth Academy during preparations for candy sale. The person circled should bring the clipping to Joan M. Smith, Courier-Journal, 114 South Union St., by noon, Tuesday, Oct. 4 to receive $5.

Marchers Have New Twist

The Bishop Kearney Marching Kings, under the direction of Arthur Rietman, will unveil an all new band for 1983-84 which took shape during the week-long band camp at BK, Aug. 22-26. The band's fall schedule includes presentation of the half-time show at Rich Stadium during the Sunday, Oct. 30 game between the Buffalo Bills and New Orleans Saints and participation in the New York State Championships at the Carrier Dome in Syracuse, Sunday, Nov. 6. Other appearances being scheduled include competitions in Victor, Medina, and Buffalo.

Some Wins, Some Losses

As of Sept. 21 Our Lady of Mercy varsity tennis team was undefeated. Mercy scored wins over Sperry and R.L. Thomas high schools 5-0 and 3-2 respectively. Against R.L. Thomas, Mercy's Liz Hanna won her singles match 6-1; 6-2 and Meg O'Leary won singles 6-1, 3-6, 6-2. In doubles, Kris Zeman and Tracy Mattingly won their match 6-3, 6-3.

and Dawn DiStifano placed second, third and fourth in the 100-yard backstroke and divers Amy Diehl and Kris Salarek took second and fourth respectively.

The varsity soccer team lost a league game to Bishop Kearney 2-1 on Tuesday, Sept. 21. Mercy took 26 shots on goal, Kearney took 11. The previous week-end the team split a pair of games in the Williamson Soccer Tournament. The loss to Williamson was by 5-3, but they beat the 1982 "A" champions, Addison, 4-1.

Despite the swim team's defeat by Greece Arcadia last week, Mercians Cathy Dalton and Kim Gerber placed second and third in the 500-yard freestyle; Aileen O'Leary, Louise Henghan

Noted For Cheers

In August the International Cheerleading Foundation (ICF) sponsored a four-day event during which nine cheerleading squads received instruction and entered competition. The four girls from the Aquinas varsity cheerleading squad were Terry Szembrot, Deirdre Doucette, Anne Marie Merola, and Mary Wamser. Group awards won by the girls were the Outstanding Jumps Award, and a red ribbon for over-all cheerleading skills. An individual spirit award was given to Mary Wamser.

Squad captains Terry and Mary spoke highly of the event held at the University of Rochester. "It benefited the cheerleaders in such a way that we can now incorporate tricks that are more difficult into cheers as well as gymnastics," Mary said. Submitted by Jeannine DelVecchio
