

Sarah Child

All in the Family

Letter From College

Dear Dad, Mom, and kids:

Send food. I have been too busy with classes, homework and soccer to spend any money but we are always hungry at night. The meals here are ok but yesterday to save time I got in the vegetarian line — spinach souffle — yuk!

We don't hit the books until 11 p.m. and by 1 a.m. we are all starving.

Send something nourishing. Homemade chocolate chips, M&M peanuts, Reeses Pieces. You know what I mean.

You wanted to know about my suitmates. They are all great.

Charlotte is in an intensive study program and just got the lead in a big play. Lydia plays the baritone horn and is in the precision marching band. She takes calculus, too, so we help each other.

Karen goes to bed at 9 p.m. and gets up at 5 a.m. to study. I never get up before 8 so I hardly ever see her. Quiet but nice.

Monique (real name Lucretia) is the best organized. Always has her homework done before the rest of us.

Sara is almost as crazy as I am. I have yet to see her do any homework. She's the tapdancer you heard over the phone and she is always saying something outrageous to put me in a good mood.

My chemistry books cost $150. Yeek! Everybody in that class is a freaky-genius. All pre-med. They keep telling the teacher when he makes a mistake and I have trouble figuring out what he's saying.

I miss you guys a lot, but I am not, repeat, Mom, NOT homesick. I think you want me to be. Sorry you can't come to parents' weekend but our game is away so I won't be here much anyway.

No, I haven't gained weight. Our suite is on the fifth floor, 100 steps up. (Uh, oh, you should have heard how Sara just answered the phone.)

In English we finished the Iliad and are now on Aeschylus. Neat stuff. All about the murder of Agamemnon. And Homer was one cool dude.

I've only done my laundry once. Too much trouble. I'm trying to figure out how to get the gym to do my stuff along with the sweats and uniforms.

Maybe I'll get some sleep. Haven't recovered yet from staying up till 5 a.m. to do that one paper.

Love ya all

J.

P.S. Don't forget the food.
