COURIER-JOURNAL

Wednesday, October 12, 1983

COURIER-

Stefania sh town in Sici

Stuc Siste

Nazareth dents traded another this senior Cindy hosted by Sicily, Roches and Stefania nior from C been welcome Stefania is t and Mrs. Antl Henrietta w Susan is a Nazareth. Ste

Awarded

It has been Aquinas junio and senior Rc the recipients Shaheen Scho is the son of of Irondequoi the son of 1 Zobel also of I

Fall Me Homec

The 198 Homecoming 1 p.m., Sature Stolze field at against Fairp will precede will start at Cathedral Parents, alur dents are invi their cars, bu meet at 11:3 parking lot to parade. Crov Homecoming during the gan

RapAroundRapAroundRapAroundRap Joan M. Smith, editor

A few of the Benjamins and their McQuaid guides: Joe Palma, Frank Palma, Tony Loverdi, Jeff Carlton, Joe Loverdi, Chris Schott, Steve Schott, Mike Auger and Chris Meisenzahl.

Younger Brothers Visit McQuaid

Ten years ago Father Leon Hogenkamp, who was then principal of McQuaid, heard about "Little Sister Day" at St. Agnes. The information initiated "Benjamin Day" at the Clinton Avenue school.

The event gives the jamins attend classes, see and neighbors of McQuaid students an opportunity to become acquainted with what especially at McQuaid. During the day the Ben-

Class Leaders Named

The following students are members of the McQuaid Student Government for the 1983-84 school year: Executive Council officers are Dan Cardinali, president; Anthony Polvino, vice president; Greg Hanna, secretary; Hans Blaakman, treasurer.

Senior class officers are: Ed Nicosia, president; John Lawrence, vice president; Frank Kuhn, secretary; Chris

Schott, Treasurer. Junior class officers are: Michael Cain, president; William Pelino, vice president; Peter McDermott, secretary; Tim Donavan, treasurer.

Sophomore officers are: Dan Peacock, president; Mike Newcomb, vice president; Kraig Syracuse, secretary; Mike Romano, treasurer.

What do you think of the new adult game Splatball.

AQUINAS

films, and meet the teachers younger brothers, friends and staff.

The Benjamin Day theme has a biblical focus; in the high school is all about Old Testament, Benjamin was the youngest brother of Joseph.

Wins Keep Coming

Band sources at Bishop Kearney are exuberant. The school's Marching Kings have scored another win in the New York State Federation of Band/Field competitions. On Sunday, Oct. 9 the Kings were on parade at Kenmore East High School in Tondawanda. The band came in first in their novice class with a score of 64.08 from a possible 100, and third overall. The drum majors took top place as did the color guard and twirlers.

Timothy Griffin has been awarded a commendation in the National Achievement Scholarship Program for Outstanding Black Students. He scored in the upper 7 percent of black students who took the National Merit Scholarship test that is given nationwide each year. Timothy is a member of BKs varsity hockey team and has been active in intramural sports for four years. He is the son of John and Della Griffin of Rochester.

According to school sources, the purpose of the achievement program is to identify the most promising among the nation's black youth and to encourage them to pursue higher education.

They'll Know Score

Mr. Eugene Sweeney, Coca-Cola Customer Relations manager, presents Sister Elaine Englert, Nazareth Academy principal, with the controls to the new scoreboard donated to the school by the Coca-Cola Company.

CHRISTIAN GOETTING Senior drama

CHRIS HANSS Senior soccer

TOM JOHNSON Senior hockey

and physical education and also coaches the Aquinas cross-country team. Tuttle, an Aquinas alumni, teaches physics and calculus. He attended Niagara University and St. John Fisher

A Tribute

To Bker

When Aquinas opened in September, hundreds of new faces appeared. Among them were four new teachers:

Armand Alesi, Rene Montenegro, Gregory Tuttle, and Alesi, who is teaching art and English, studied at the Fashion Institute of Technology in New York

City, Rochester Institute of Technology where he majored in communications design, Nazareth College where he earned a BS and a major

Montenegro attended

Manhatten College and Arizona State. He teaches

English, business dynamics

Keith Zopski.

in education.

BS in physics. Zoski, has a BA in

New Staff Additions

Welcomed at Aquinas

engineering technology, a Masters in philosophy, and

Alumnae Flash

Sara Riester, a graduate of Bishop Kearney High School, has earned a spot on the Mary Washington College varsity tennis team. Sara is a freshman at the school and is in the eighth position on the Blue Tide ladder.

"Sara is working hard on her game and as a result, she is showing steady improve- championship.

Typing For a Purpose

dents are looking for sponsors for a unique marathon. On Wednesday, Oct. 26 the advanced keyboarding and office practice students will take part in a type-a-thon for the Leukemia Society.

College where he received a an education degree specializing in administration and supervision. He teaches trigonometry, earth science, general science, and general math.

> ment," said Ed Hegmann, MWC coach.

According to a school release the Blue Tide finished the 1982-83 season with a 27-3 record and a fourth place finish in the NCAA Division III national tournament. In the 1981-82 season the team won the AIAW Division III national Nazareth Academy stu- The student sponsors will pay one cent for every correct word typed in a five minute period.

> The student bringing in the largest dollar amount in sponsors will be given a prize.

Conta a de la presidente de la contact

AP

"I think it is a civilized game. It's a way of relieving aggresson that some people have inside of them. I think the idea is ingenious. The mock violence that is promoted in the game is directed toward friends and collegues that you are playing with. It's better than fighting and arguing. If all the real violence was geared toward the gist of the game there wouldn't be so much violence in the world today.'

> DIANE FAUST Freshman color guard

"I don't know too much about the game but it's meant to be a fun type of game. I don't think there is any harm to it - just a game with friends - no one can get hurt. If it's taken lightly I don't think there is any basic mean motive behind it. It's just meant to be fun. It appeals to adults because it is not ethical to get into fistfights - it's a more accepted way to release aggression in a game format. I think it is a healthy attitude.'

"I don't think it is a good idea. It sort of rationalizes war because if they use same terminology and do everything they do in a real war it is like a practice for the real thing. It promotes violence - the idea of it is war. People like it and to them it is only a game and that is how they take it - at face value. It is human nature to be violent and aggressive.'

BETSY LaGATTUTA

Senior

soccer

game at all - no good purpose. I just think there are other ways that offer a valve for a person's hostility. That type game catches on because resembles real war too much.

It seems to me it encourages it is exciting but I think it an ugly reality. I can't understand why anyone

"There isn't anything positive about the would make a mock war. There is enough real violence in the world without playing at

"I think the game is just for fun. Kids have always played a game of capture the flag -this is just an adult version. When it was first thought of it was an de la comercia thought of as a game for survival. These types of games are taken by people for just what they are - a game. If a person was going to shoot someone he would do it regardless of a game such as this."

JOE MENZ

Senior

"I think it is all right but should not be carried too far. The game should be taken lightly. Developing a game like this shows man going toward war and violence rather than peace. People pick up on a game like this from the news and advertising. It seems like history hasn't changed. Even though we are in a modern age, people still like to act out their hostilities."

CHRIS RUSZCZYK Senior soccer

"I think adults should realize that war is more serious than just a game. They must play Splatball strictly for entertainment. They play it not knowing what war is really like. I guess adults like the game because they want to know what war feels like, but I don't think they need games like this."

NICK ANTINARELLA Senior soccer

"I think it is a good way for people to release their frustrations. But I think manufacturers are trying to take advantage of people's dark side - their tendency toward violence. The game makes people think about what happens in real war. We use violence to show force."

Winner

RapAround diocese. One Courier-Jou she will recei songfest. Th Courier-Jou