

The Rosary

It Fights Spirit of Evil, Pope Says at Marian Mass

Vatican City (NC) — Recitation of the rosary is needed to fight the "spirit of error and evil" in the world, said Pope John Paul II Oct. 2 at a Mass dedicated to Mary.

The Polish-born pontiff also made a special appeal for Polish pilgrims to pray for peace in the world and in their country.

Speaking to 100,000 people during an open-air Mass in St. Peter's Square on World Marian Day, the pope said the rosary had taken on a new significance during the Holy Year of Redemption.

"The rosary is full of greater purposes than in the past. It's not a matter of asking for great victories, like those at Lepanto and Vienna, but rather of asking Mary to make us brave combatants against the spirit of error and evil," the pope said.

The rosary, the pope added, is not "simple repetition."

"The words addressed to Mary by God himself and pronounced by the divine messenger contain an impenetrable content. This content is united with the mystery of the redemption," he said.

The European naval victory over Moslem Turks at Lepanto in 1571 was commemorated by Pope Pius V, who in the 16th century instituted the feast of the Most Holy Rosary on Oct. 7. The Battle of Vienna in 1683 also was a European victory over Turkish forces. Both battles preserved Christianity as the dominant religion of Europe.

Teddy Urges Special Envoy For Ireland

Washington (NC) — By appointing a special envoy to help end conflict in Northern Ireland, the United States could "demonstrate our commitment to peace," Sen. Edward M. Kennedy (D-Mass.) said Oct. 5.

Kennedy introduced a resolution in Congress calling on President Reagan to name a special envoy.

"Efforts to end the violence are entering a period of new promise," the senator said. "It is timely, therefore, for the United States to act now to make its good offices available to the Irish and British governments and to all the parties in Northern Ireland."

Kennedy said recent signs of hope include the New Ireland Forum's effort to develop realistic proposals to protect the rights of Protestants and Catholics.

"The United States can play a positive and constructive role in encouraging the peace efforts now under way," he said.

Senate Extends Hyde Amendment

Washington (NC) — The Senate on Oct. 4 approved an appropriations bill for the Departments of Labor and Health and Human Services which contains a one-year extension of the Hyde amendment.

The amendment, sponsored by Rep. Henry J. Hyde (R-Ill.), bans federal funding of abortion.

The Senate Appropriations Committee had approved a continuation of the current Hyde amendment language which prohibits Medicaid funding of abortions except when the life of the mother is endangered. The Senate retained the committee's language.

The House of Representatives approved, by a vote of 231-184, a one-year extension of the Hyde amendment Sept. 22. The House version was more stringent than current law because it prohibits even funding of abortions to save the life of the mother.

House members settled for the stricter Hyde amendment after a committee-approved version permitting the life-of-the-mother exception was removed from the bill on a technicality.

Hyde had assured House members that a life-of-the-mother clause would be added in a House-Senate conference committee.
