

A Message From the Director

Fr. Robert C. Qualler

To the world's suffering people, missionaries bring the Good News of Christ — good news in the form of spiritual and material aid each person needs to be truly alive.

October 23rd is World Mission Sunday, the focal point of a month dedicated to the missions by Pope John Paul II.

On that day, the Pope — through the Propagation of the Faith — asks all people of faith and love to pray and sacrifice so that everyone may hear the Good News of God's love.

With your help, the Church's missions will continue calling all people to be "alive together with Christ."
