The Lima Text: Baptism. Eucharist And Ministry

Part II

The modern ecumenical movement has been inspired by the conviction that organic unity is God's will for the Church. The goal of the movement is to call the divided churches to a visible unity in one eucharist and to a common life in Christ. In honesty, we must admit that our ecumenical experiences show that we have been far more effective in describing our goal than realizing it. So, the ecumenical journey continues.

After the excitement generated at Vancouver, where 20 Roman Catholics sat as official observers, and where Anglicans and Protestants ate the same bread and. drank the same cup, we need to look at the nextstage of our common pilgrimage of faith.

In order for the separated churches to achieve the unity they seek, one of the prerequisites is a basic agreement on baptism, eucharist and ministry. For the first time the divided churches are being asked to act together on unifying doctrine. Specifically, they are being invited to prepare an official response to the text presented at the Sixth Assembly of the World Council of Churches "at the highest level of authority, whether it be a council, synod, conference, assembly or other body." Just as important, the Faith and Order Commission is asking churches "to enable the widest possible involvement of the whole people of God to all levels of church life," The response of the churches to this agreed statement will be a vital step in the ecumenical process of reception.

tism. Eucharist and Ministry," goes in the direction of Vatican II. When churches enter into officially approved dialogue with one another with the express intent of reaching organic union, these churches share a profound relationship. Wherever possible, all churches are encouraged to share and compare their study results across confessional, national and cultural boundaries. Today, the churches need to enter into face-to-face ecumenical dialogue, to preach the full gospel and to help people understand the whole inhabited truth. The churches cannot, should not operate in a vacuum of denominationalism.

RCIA Workshop Offered by ORE

The diocesan Office of Religious Education is sponsoring workshops entitled "RCIA: Catechist Formation" for RCIA core teams and catechists, 10:30 a.m.-1 p.m., Tuesday, Oct. 25 at St. Stephen's School, Geneva; and 7:30 -9:30 p.m., Wednesday, Oct. 26, at St. Anne's, Rochester.

"This session will help catechists in the RCIA to successfully integrate the content of catechesis, the liturgical year, and prayer and celebration to achieve the time of study and reflection that the period of the catechumenate requires," a diocesan release stated.

Claude Lester, director of religious education at St. John the Evangelist Church on Humboldt Street, will speak on the ministry of the catechist in the RCIA; Denise Mack, director of religious education at St. Rita's Church in West Webster, will discuss the content of catechesis in the RCIA; Sister Nancy DeRycke, pastoral assistant at the Church of the Resurrection in Fairport, will present the method of catechesis in the RCIA.

All of the speakers are experienced in the RCIA process, the diocesan office said; and the format of the day will encourage critical reflection on the material presented.

The fee for the workshop is $2 per person. Pre-registration is made by calling the Office of Religious Education (716) 328-3210 by Friday, Oct. 21.

IF YOU CAN'T GO-GIVE

THE HOLY FATHER'S MISSION AID TO THE ORIENTAL CHURCH

October 23rd is Mission Sunday, Christ asks all of us to be missionaries. He does not expect everyone to leave home and family and labor in His vineyards in foreign lands. But He does expect all of us to help spread His Gospel. You can answer His call through your gifts to Catholic Near East, our Holy Father's own mission to the Eastern Churches.

GO TEACH ALL NATIONS

For just $15 a month, you can train a native priest—a Sister, for $12.50. For only $14 a month, you can "adopt" a needy child They'll all send you their photos and write to you Churches, chapels, schools, convents, rectories and clinics are needed, too. You can build one yourself as a Memorial for someone you love for between $5 and $15 thousand. Or, give whatever you can Your gift will help our priests and Sisters carry on their Christ-like work in the Near East.

TASTY

Your Sunday dinner will seem tastier and be more meaningful if you share your blessings with the hungry families huddled in refugee camps of the Near East. For only $20 less than the cost of most family dinners-you can feed a Palestine refugee family for an entire month. To show their thanks to you, we'll send you an Olive Wood Rosary from the Holy Land.

ANOTHER

Needs of missionaries are great. It's hard sometimes to decide just where your help is needed most. Why not let the Holy Father decide? Mark your gift (in any amount) Stringless, and send it to us. The Holy Father will tell us where
