

Signs of the Times

Photos by Anthony J. Costello and Terrance J. Brennan

The varieties of groups gathered at the Saturday demonstration in Sampson State Park and Seneca Army Depot are represented by the numerous signs and banners which they carried and posted. Bishop Clark pointed particularly to the sign, "Clark for Pope," during his remarks. Rochesterians Allison Clark and Bob Staley-Mays staffed the table for Rochester Peace and Justice Education Center. Rochesterian attorneys Ian DeWaal (left) and Mark Davison carry the Lawyers Alliance for Nuclear Arms Control banner.
