

Prayer and Protest

Religious leaders from Geneva, Rochester, and Seneca Falls gather at the Waterloo Presbyterian Church Sunday, Oct. 23 to pray for peace. More than 300 persons attended the service, many of them participants in the civil disobedience activities the day following. Outside the church, Robert Appell (below) and Arnold Covey (right), staged a counter demonstration, as they did for most of the weekend.

Photos by Anthony J. Costello

