

POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT

POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT

POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT

POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT

Eugene Welch received his law degree in 1970 from Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C. He received an undergraduate degree in English from St. John Fisher in 1967 and graduated from McQuaid Jesuit High School in 1962.

As a Federal Prosecutor :

Welch prosecuted Olin Chemical for illegally dumping mercury into the Niagara River.

Welch prosecuted phony accident claims, robbers and drug dealers.

Welch took on a major pharmaceutical company and recovered the largest civil fine.

As Assistant State Attorney General :

Welch saved New York State taxpayers millions of dollars by professional defense of civil lawsuits in State Supreme Court.

Welch recovered nearly a half million dollars for New York State consumers in State Supreme Court.

"This summer the Governor recognized my unique qualifications to do both civil and criminal cases of Supreme Court when he appointed me to be Supreme Court Judge. Let's not wait around any longer for the Senate to confirm that appointment. Put me, Gene Welch, in Supreme Court, so I can continue to do justice for you."

Welch

for Supreme Court Justice

Paid for by the Welch for Supreme Court Justice Committee

Tim Culhane Treasurer