

SMALL FRY JOIN THE HOLIDAY PARTIES with their own Frosty Eggnog made with Libby's Orange Frost.

Frothy holiday eggnog: A treat for kids, too!

Chestnuts roasting, the pungent aroma of mince pie baking, bayberry candles, mistletoe, roast turkey, plum pudding — and a punch bowl brimming with eggnog. They're all part of the warm tradition of holiday hospitality.

But traditional eggnog — "sweetened" with brandy — is off-limits for the small fry.

So why not let them "join the party" this year with an extra-special holiday eggnog of their very own. They'll be back for "seconds" and even "thirds" of this frothy delicious drink made with Libby's Orange

Frost drink mix. (And you may find the grown-ups sampling from the "kiddies' table," too).

FROSTY EGGNOG

- 1 cup orange juice
- 1 cup prepared eggnog
- 1 packet (2 oz.) Libby's Orange Frost
- 1½ cups cracked ice or 8 good-size ice cubes

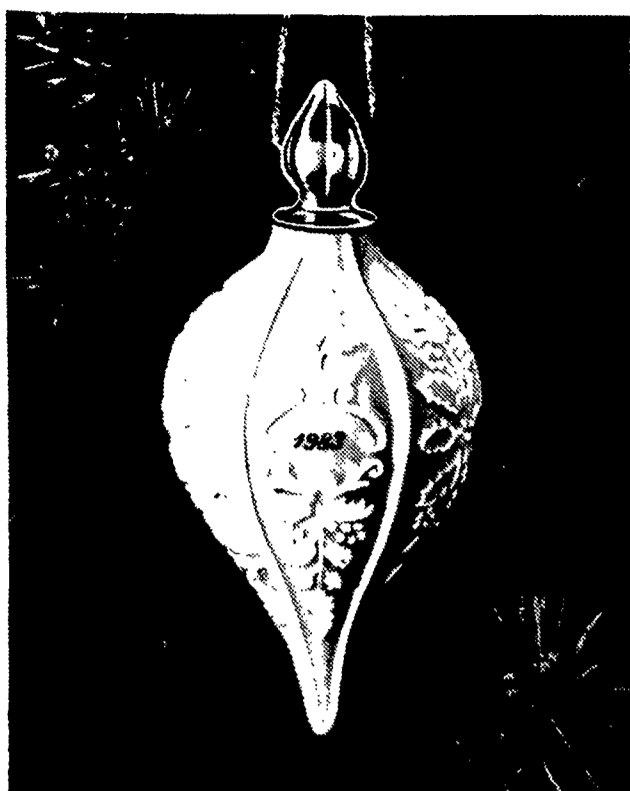

Combine ingredients in blender container.

Blend at high speed for 30 seconds or until smooth and well blended.

Garnish with ground nutmeg, if desired.

Yields 4 (7 oz.) servings. Happy Holidays!

The 1983 ornament, which is part of a limited edition annual series, is handcrafted with a sculptured holly motif and is topped with 24-karat gold finial. The year 1983 also appears in 24-karat gold. A gold-colored cord is looped through the top finial for secure hanging on a tree. The 5¾" ornament comes beautifully gift-boxed in gold and red, and makes a lovely choice for holiday gift-giving.
