

Antebellum Beauty

The wedding dress of the demure Southern belle is best exemplified here in a gown of Cluny lace and satin ribbons. An asymmetrically ruffled bodice with V-neck and ballgown sleeves is designed by Michele Piccione for Bridallure. This dream-like creation is completed with a full lace skirt, cathedral train trimmed with rows of narrow lace ruffles and satin ribbons. The look is completed by the bride's large-brimmed picture hat, with removable wreath, by Tina Michele.
