Brazil Mission Will Reap Benefits From Parish Concert

St. Charles Borromeo will host a benefit concert of Irish music and dancing from 1:30-6 p.m., Sunday, Feb. 26, at the parish center, 3003 Dewey Avenue.

Entertainment will include music by "Mulligan, Miller and Dolan," and Al Rehn, and Irish folk dancing by the Hibernian Ceili Dancers.

Admission is $3, $2 for students (children under 12 free), and refreshments will be available. Proceeds from the concert will benefit the Brazilian mission work of Father Tom Brown, O.M.I.

Father Brown, a Rochester native, assisted at St. Charles from 1980-81. He currently serves a parish of approximately 30,000 Catholics in Embu Guacu where economic conditions take their toll with an inflation rate of 200 percent each year and an unemployment rate that nears 35 percent.

The concert is open to the public and tickets may be purchased after Masses each Sunday, or at the door, or by calling Emmett Neary (865-0992) or Beverly Lorenzo (663-5110).

MAG Introduces Hearing System

Bret Waller, Memorial Art Gallery director, announced that the gallery is now equipped with a device that opens many of the gallery's programs to persons unable to participate previously because of impaired hearing. With the new Induction Loop Amplification (ILA) system, provided by a grant from Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wynd of Pittsford, persons with hearing aids designed for telephone listening or with speical hand-held aids will be able to hear a speaker from the auditorium stage with the same clarity from any spot in the room.

According to Mark C. Hargrave, president of Help for the Hard of Hearing Enterprises (HHH), the system's installer, the ILA consists of an amplifier and a wire loop that runs the perimeter of the gallery's auditorium and connects to an amplifier. As a result, when a speaker uses a microphone or a movie soundtrack is played, an induction field is created within the loop area. Persons with a telephone-circuit-equipped hearing aid need simply to
