

Council of Homes Elects Officers

The Council of Homes of Rochester and Monroe County, representing 12 voluntary, non-profit nursing homes in the area, amended their 15-year-old bylaws and elected officers at their annual meeting Jan. 19.

Elected as chairman is Michael J. Bierley, administrator of Park Ridge

Nursing Home; vice chairman is Sister Marie Michelle Peartree, president of St. Ann's Home/The Heritage; and secretary-treasurer is Rev. Alvin C. Foster, administrator of the Fairport Baptist Home.

"Prior to our reorganization, each group member was working independently on ideas that would benefit their particular home and the elderly community," said Bierley. "Now we are working together to resolve some of the major issues facing the elderly."

According to a council press release, the organization's goal is "to apply clout on behalf of the elderly, act as a clearinghouse for information, address issues affecting the aging, and promote overall quality and cost-effective long-term care.

Other homes with representation on the council's board include The Episcopal Church Home, Jewish Home and Infirmary, Monroe Community Hospital, Rochester Friendly Home, Rochester United Methodist Home/Goodman Gardens Nursing Home, Rochester Presbyterian Home, St. John's Home for the Aging/St. John's Nursing Home, The Genesee Hospital Extended Care Facility, and the Strong Memorial Hospital Long Term Care Unit.
