Entrances Changed At St. Joseph's

Elmira — St. Joseph's Hospital has begun construction activities as part of its three-year modernization and renovation project. Because of this, various changes are necessary to maintain full operation with minimal interruption of services.

The first of these will affect the entry to the Emergency Room and those patients coming to the hospital for regularly scheduled outpatient and rehabilitation services.

Access to the Emergency Room will be through the temporary entrance at the west end of the hospital between Market and Church streets. Those people using outpatient services and rehabilitation patients will enter through the doors at the elevator entrance across from Ss. Peter and Paul's Church.

During daylight hours, volunteers will be on hand to lend assistance.

These changes will be effective March 1.

Pope's Visit To Nicaragua Topic of Film

A film of Pope John Paul II's May 1983 visit to Nicaragua will be shown at 7:30 p.m., Monday, March 5, at St. John of Rochester Parish Center, 625 Ayrault Road, Perinton.

Following the film, Philip Trower, European correspondent for the Wanderer, will speak on “Builders and Destroyers — Reform and Rebellion in the Catholic Church since Vatican II.” Trower covered the 1980 and 1983 synods of bishops in Rome. Rochester is one of more than 30 cities in which he will speak on a national tour.

Both events are sponsored by Fidelity Forum of Central-Western New York and are free to the public. Further information is available from 248-5996 or 223-1251.

Kenyon Named Admissions Director

Paul W. Kenyon has been appointed director of admissions of Nazareth College, effective March 5. He succeeds Paul Buntich, who has been named director of student activities.

Kenyon has been assistant director of admissions at the United States Military Academy at West Point since September 1982. In his duties at Nazareth College, Kenyon will direct the student recruitment activities of a six-member staff.

Among earlier employments, Kenyon was assistant director and then director of admissions of North Country Community College in Saranac Lake, and was a member of the admissions staff of Nazareth College.

Deadline

Deadline for news in the Courier-Journal is noon on Thursday, preceding Wednesday publication. The Courier-Journal address is 114 S. Union St., Rochester, N.Y. 14607.

Marching Forth On March 4th

Sunday, Bishop Matthew H. Clark and young persons from across the diocese will meet at Bishop Kearney High School for the first such diocesan gathering, “Bishop Clark Challenges Youth.”

Officials working on the convocation are pleased with the indicated high attendance. Patrick Fox, diocesan director of Youth Ministry, said that three busloads of youngsters have been scheduled from Elmira, one from Ithaca and another from Auburn.

“This would mean between 200 and 250 coming from these places, not even counting Rochester,” Fox said.

Youths from Corning, Geneva and other points also are expected.

The bishop is looking forward to the meeting; panelists and workshop presenters are all scheduled, and “we look forward to a large gathering,” Fox said.

The purpose of the day is to explore ministry in the Church and to celebrate youth as Church.

The convocation will be marked by extensive participation by Bishop Clark. He will deliver the opening address and facilitate a panel discussion. He also is eager to meet the youngsters. In fact, Bishop Clark, after chatting with youngsters on his travels around the diocese, suggested the day as an opportunity to meet “as many youths as possible, a diocesan spokesman said.

Other parts of the program include workshops, dinner and a Mass. It was designed by the offices of Vocation, Youth Ministry and Youth Retreats and by many youngsters themselves.

Deadline

Deadline for news in the Courier-Journal is noon on Thursday, preceding Wednesday publication.

Youth Loneliness to Be Diocesan Panel Topic

Loneliness as a part of many young people's lives, will be the topic for a panel discussion hosted by the Commission on Young Adult Ministry, 7:30 p.m., March 9 at Assumption Parish Hall, 20 East Ave., Fairport.

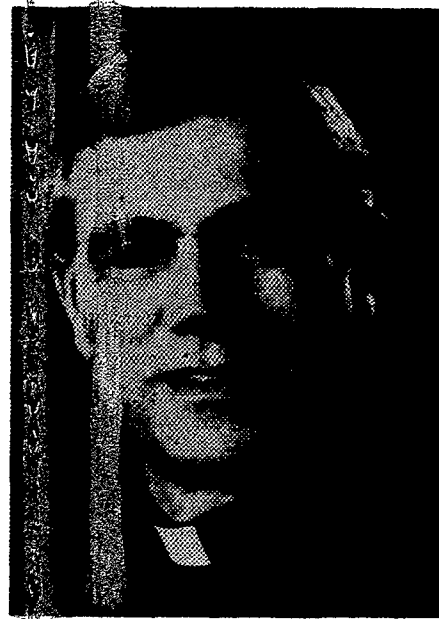

Entitled “Freedom from Loneliness,” the event will feature panel discussion with audience participation.

It is the first of four educational segments to be sponsored by the diocesan commission.

Refreshments will be served. The program is free and open to the public.
