

A Special Thanks

Brother Francis Ellis, principal of Cardinal Mooney High School, expresses appreciation to co-producers Norma Phelan and Ginny Probst for the donation given the school by the directors, cast and crew of the 1983 Follies. Proceeds are committed to minimizing tuition-increases.

Creating in Glass

Twenty students in grades fourth through eighth at St. Thomas More School are enrolled in a stained glass class directed by Miss Joanne Zawacki. The course deals in the aesthetics as well as with the history of stained glass. Pupils learn techniques like pattern making, cutting glass, copper foiling and soldering.

Proof Positive

It is often wondered if those who attended Catholic schools still consider them a value for their children now in the Vatican II period. Those at Our Lady of Perpetual Help School say yes because the school is now instructing the fourth generation of the Malick family.

According to OLPH sources the family feels that Catholic education continues to be a strong instruction force with them and maintain it has prepared them well. They also attest to the happiness in their lives they attribute to the values and atmosphere of OLPH as well as to their strong family structure. The family hopes that what was begun nearly 80 years ago will find a way

Drive, Intelligence and a Fisher Degree . . . an unbeatable combination

Thomas B. Hogan, Jr. '67, C.P.A. Partner-in-charge Deloitte Haskins & Sells Rochester, New York

"I've never regretted my decision to attend Fisher. I'm very pleased with the quality of education I received. The faculty was directly responsible for my interest and enthusiasm in accounting. I had professors who took a genuine interest in their students, who worked very hard and felt good when their students progressed. They took a personal interest in how well their students did. Fisher is an outstanding institution."

Fisher grads come from challenging academic programs and are ready for the complex demands of the work world.

Fisher grads have confidence because they receive encouragement and support from their first interview through graduation from a caring staff of trained counselors and superb faculty advisors.

When you choose a college, choose the one that will help you prepare for life and prepare for living.

So Much. So Close. Come . . . see for yourself.
