Heavenward

Children in CCD classes 8-12 and members of the parish Adult Education Committee at St. Patrick's in Corning participated in a special peace program March 18. Following singing and a brief prayer for peace, led by Father Philip Billotte, center of photo, balloons were released as a symbol of prayers being sent to God. Attached to the balloons were scripture verses of love and peace which the children looked up. The participants group prayed not only for peace among their everyday contacts but also between nations.

St. Monica's Speaker Is Father and Dad

Father George Clements, pastor of Holy Angels Catholic Church in Chicago and a nationally known advocate of black adoptions, will be the keynote speaker at the first annual fundraising dinner sponsored by the Parents Committee of St. Monica School Tuesday evening, April 10, at the Mapledale Party House.

FATHER CLEMENTS

Father Clements has gained national recognition through his adoption of two children of his own. He is widely known as a Catholic educator, community activist and for his political involvements in Chicago and nationwide.

The St. Monica committee will use proceeds from budgetary purposes in hopes of avoiding an increase in school tuition.

Ticket and other information is available from Merrilyn Parks, 464-0569, or Clara Cowans of the diocesan Office of Black Ministries, 328-3210, ext. 269.

'Urban Causeway' Set for April 6

Church Women United will sponsor its fifth Urban Causeway, starting at 9 a.m., Friday, April 6, at Emmanuel Evangelical Covenant Church, 319 Browncroft Blvd.

The program will investigate the urban ministries of two churches, Westminster Presbyterian and Corpus Christi.

Bible Study Offered at St. Bridget's

The Youth Ministry Office of Black Ministries will offer Lenten Bible Study from 6 to 7 p.m., Tuesdays, during Lent at St. Bridget Church, 175 St. Bridget Drive.

Soup will be served. Those attending are asked to bring their own Bibles. Further information is available from Ms. Jacquelyn Dobson, coordinator, at 546-3618, or 328-3210. The study is open to the public, youths or adults.

CWU literature states, "These two churches are reaching out to their congregations and communities in creative new ways."

In addition, participants will hear about Cephas Attica, a group working with returned prisoners.

Those attending are asked to bring a brown-bag lunch. Coffee and dessert will be provided.

Further information and reservations are obtained by calling the CWU office, 454-1813. Cost of the program is $3.

Lay Carmelites

Rochester Lay Carmelites' regular monthly meeting will begin with recitation of the rosary, 2:45 p.m., Sunday, April 1 at St. Ann's Home, 1500 Portland Ave. Eucharist is celebrated at 3:05 p.m., followed by a community meeting. Visitors are welcome.

Curran to Speak

Father Charles Curran, the Rochester-born moral theologian, professor at Catholic University of America, will speak on "Ethical Issues raised in 'The Challenge of Peace,'" 7:30 p.m., Friday, April 13 at the auditorium of Colgate-Rochester Divinity School. The event is coordinated by the diocesan steering committee on "The Challenge of Peace."

BK Goes Hawaiian

Recently Bishop Kearney High School's halls were filled with seniors dressed in brightly colored outfits, Hawaiian leis, sandals and sunglasses as they celebrated their '84 Day.

According to a school news release, the seniors gathered in the cafeteria first and second periods to share memories and discuss their future plans over doughnuts, coffee, and orange juice. Organizers of the day, moderated by Brother Michael Kabot, were Lee Vento and Mike Dillon.
