

Sister Mary Felix Monahan, Sister of Mercy 62 Years

Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated March 24 for Sister Mary Felix Monahan who died March 21, 1984. Sister Mary Felix was 89, a member of the Sisters of Mercy for more than 62 years and a teacher in the diocese for 49 years.

Born in Ransomville, she entered the congregation, at the age of 26, from Gouverneur, where the family had moved. She made her profession of final vows Aug. 23, 1927.

She taught at Our Lady of Mount Carmel, Rochester; St. Patrick's, Owego; St. Ann's, Hornell; St. Salome's, Rochester; St. John's, Clyde; St. Cecilia's, Elmira; and at Holy Cross, St. James and St. Helen's in Rochester.

She retired in 1974 and moved to the motherhouse where she joined in the ministry of the Spiritual Apostolate, a service of prayer.

Sister Mary Alma Waterstraat, RSM, a friend of more than 60 years, said of her, "She was just a downright good friend I could call on anytime."

"She was very low-key, very even. She had a very calming, soothing effect. She'd listen. She was a good listener. And she'd laugh — she used to laugh at me more — and after I was finished going on about something, she'd laugh and say, 'Do you feel better now?'"

As Sister Mary Felix died, a priest and many of her Sisters were gathered in her room, saying the prayers for the dying.

She is survived by a sister-in-law, Mrs. Theresa H. Monahan, and several cousins.
