

DEATHS

Sister Eligia Mussi

Mass of Christian Burial for Sister Eligia Mussi of the Sisters of St. Joseph was celebrated April 4 in the motherhouse chapel. Sister Eligia died April 2, 1984, at age of 96.

At the time of her death, Sister Eligia was the oldest professed Sister in the congregation, just 11 days short of celebrating her 75th anniversary in the convent. She was born in Auburn, and entered the congregation from St. Alphonsus Parish there in 1908. She was a graduate of Nazareth Normal School and was granted a Life Certificate for Teaching by the state department of education.

She taught in the primary and intermediate grades for 60 years. Among the schools to which she was assigned are Holy Apostles, Nazareth Academy Grammar School, Our Lady of Perpetual Help, St. Lucy, and St. Francis Xavier, all in Rochester; St. Patrick, Mt. Morris, St. Francis deSales, Geneva; and St. Mary, Waterloo.

She taught at St. Lucy for 26 years.

Sister Eligia retired from teaching in 1969 and retired to the congregation's infirmary in 1970.

A congregation spokesperson said, "She had a delightful sense of humor and was able to make the work of the school day an exciting experience for her pupils. She was beloved of both students and their families." Sister Eligia is survived by a sister, Mary Carcelli of Rochester; and several nieces and nephews.

Presiding at the funeral rites was Father Michael Cerretto, CSB. Others present were Father Joseph Mitrano, CSB; Father Genaro Ventura, and Father Paul Cuddy.
