

Old St. Mary

As part of its sesqui centennial celebration, Old St. Mary's Church in conjunction with the Upstairs Youth Agency, will stage "Step in Time," an original musical production, 8 p.m., June 29 and 30 at the Xerox Square Auditorium. The show will feature memories, song and dance honoring both the City of Rochester and the church, both founded in 1834. Free tickets are available at St. Mary's Rectory, but donations will be accepted for the work of the youth agency. Further information is available by calling 232-7140.

Perpetual Help

Our Lady of Perpetual Help parishioners will celebrate a triduum in honor of their patroness, 7:30 p.m., June 25, 26 and 27. On the first two days, the rosary, meditations and prayers to Our Lady will be followed by benediction. On the feast of Our Mother of Perpetual Help, a Mass will be celebrated at 7:30 p.m. The triduum is being offered for world peace and for the special intentions of participants. The public is invited to participate in the devotions and Liturgy.

Assumption

Fairport — An urgent call for volunteer drivers to take persons to doctors, grocery stores and on other errands has gone out from the Caring and Sharing program of the Church of the Assumption. Persons willing to volunteer have been asked to call 425-1117 or 223-7846.

Mother of Sorrows

A summer Bible program for children is slated each day 9 a.m.-noon., July 30-August 3, at Mother of Sorrows Church. The program from children 4 through 12 (with older youths needed as aides), will include such activities as Bible stories, music, arts, crafts, recreation, prayer and liturgy. The fee is $10 per child, $15 per family. Registration is available by contacting the parish religious education office, 5000 Mt. Read Blvd., Rochester, N.Y. 14612; 612-3495.

St. Ambrose

The annual parish Anointing Mass will be celebrated 12:30 p.m., Sunday, June 24 at St. Ambrose Church. A parish announcement states: "This celebration has become a beautiful tradition in our parish. During the Anointing Mass, our aged, sick and infirm parish family members, and all those who seek the healing power of Jesus are each blessed with holy oil and prayed for with the entire community."

St. Francis Assisi

An ice cream social will be held 5-7 p.m., Sunday, June 24 at St. Francis of Assisi Parish. A $1 donation entitles the ticket holder to three scoops of ice cream and the choice of many toppings.

St. Francis Assisi

The People's Eucharistic Hour will be celebrated 7 p.m., Saturday, June 22 at St. Francis of Assisi Church on the corner of Orange and Whitney streets.

Immaculate Conception

Ithaca — A summer Mass schedule for Immaculate Conception Church has been published. The weekend liturgies will be 6 p.m. on Saturdays; and 7, 9 and 10:30 a.m. on Sundays, starting June 24.

Recently elected parish council officers are Al Brill, president; Mary Ann Fitzpatrick, vice president; and Barbara Manning, secretary.

St. Casimir

Elmira — The St. Casimir Church Festival will open at noon, June 24 at the corner of Roe and Davis streets. Featured will be a Polka Mass at 11 a.m., Polish and American food, a chicken barbeque and dancing to the music of two polka bands, Lukashewski's Polka Melodies, and Joey Augustine Band.

St. Patrick

Aurora — Father John Hayes, pastor of St. Patrick here and St. Michael in Union Springs, and chaplain at Wells College, was honored at a reception Sunday by members of his parish, friends and Wells College.

St. Mark

The Rosary Society of St. Mark's Church recently held its annual installation dinner. The new officers are Connie Schmeer, president; Joyce Hermans, vice president; and Nan Apey, treasurer.

St. Thomas the Apostle

Father William Endres (left), associate, and Msgr. Richard Burns, pastor emeritus of St. Thomas the Apostle Church, discuss plans for two parish summer events. First on the agenda is an "Un-festival Social," a fund-raiser featuring free music and refreshments, 8-9:30 p.m., Friday, June 22. The second is a 16-day European tour for which Msgr. Burns will act as spiritual director and which will include stops in Lourdes, Vienna, Paris, Salzburg and Oberammergau, Aug. 29-Sept. 12. Principals of the events, designed to replace the parish's annual summer festival, are Father L. James Callan, pastor; Mrs. Robert Treacy, Kathy Glazier, Bob and Marianne Kerry and Bob Brown.

St. Boniface

"Spring into Summer" is the title of the annual St. Boniface Festival, noon-10 p.m., Saturday, June 23, on the church property. Proceeds will go to the school. Featured will be a flea market, a baked goods sale and refreshments.
