

Martyr's Shrine Slates Rosary Rally for Peace

Auriesville — A national rosary rally for peace, dedicated to both Our Lady of Mount Carmel and Our Lady of Fatima will be held Sunday, July 15 at the North American Martyrs' Shrine here.

The program will feature recitation of the rosary for world peace, renewal of family life, reparation for abortion and Church unity.

In addition, Albany's Pilgrim Virgin Statue will be on display.

The day includes Masses at 10 a.m., 11:15 a.m., 12:30 p.m.; and a special Mass presided over by Bishop Howard Hubbard of Albany at 4 p.m.

The movie, "Our Lady of Fatima," will be shown; and stations of the cross and the seven dolors will be observed.

A rosary procession will be formed at 2 p.m.

A number of people are organizing pilgrimages to the event.

Diocesan contacts for the event, according to area, are: Auburn, Peter De Bellis, 252-9732; Geneva, Dorothy Kalina, 789-8099; Ithaca, Rose Gaultiere, 273-6803; Rochester: Mary Kelly, 586-1664; Stella Masuzzo, 334-5516; Dorothy Macaluso, 436-7029; Seneca Falls, Florence Novak, 568-8203; Waterloo, LaDonna Truax, 539-8013.

Father Abbott To Preach at Kateri Feast

Auriesville — Father Walter M. Abbott, SJ, noted scripture scholar and ecumenist, will preside at Mass and preach the homily for the celebration of Blessed Kateri Feast Day, 7:30 p.m., July 14 at the Martyrs Shrine Coliseum.

Father Abbott credits the intercession of Blessed Kateri Tekakwitha for the partial restoration of sight in one eye, damaged in a fall.

Also present for the celebration will be Mary-Eunice Spagnola, a Rochester native now living in New Jersey. Mrs. Spagnola will present a dramatic monologue on the life of the Mohawk maiden whose cause for canonization is being advanced in Rome.

Sally Mullin will direct the St. Joseph's Parish Choir from Broadalbin and Alexandra McDonald will sing a Kateri song.

It's Kidera Gym Now

Appellate Court Justice Emmett J. Schnepf, chairman of the Nazareth College Board of Trustees, and Robert A. Kidea, Nazareth president, read the words of a new plaque which recognizes Kidera's role in building the college's successful athletic program. The trustees named the gym after Kidera "to honor his dedication to quality in scholarship and athletics."

Balinsky Named To Charities Post

Albany -- John J. Balinsky, Syracuse director of Catholic Charities, has been named executive secretary of the State Council of Catholic Charities Directors.

In making the appointment, J. Alan Davitt, executive secretary of the State Catholic Conference, said, "I am delighted to have a man of Jack Balinsky's proven ability join the conference staff."

"In the Syracuse area and with statewide Catholic Charities and various social action coalitions, Mr. Balinsky has demonstrated his concern for the marginal members of our society and his willingness to use his outstanding talents to achieve equity and fair representation for their needs," Davitt said. He will replace James A. Cashen who has been appointed a member of the state Commission on the Quality of Care for the Mentally Disabled.

Since 1981, Balinsky has served as coordinator of the Statewide Emergency Network for Social and Economic Security, an action-oriented coalition of several religious and nonprofit groups involved in advocating on behalf of those in need.

A 1967 graduate of Notre Dame, Balinsky holds a Masters degree in public administration from the Woodrow Wilson School of Public and International Affairs of Princeton University.

Disney Movie Come to Life

Six stale taco shells crumbled and thrown under the largest sycamore have attracted a score or more of sparrows. Beneath the pole feeder several plump mourning doves and two very red cardinals jockey for position and then suddenly disperse to make way for one of the rascally squirrels which routinely gobble most of the birdseed.

In the far corner of our almost-acre, a large rabbit munches placidly on some tender spears of grass and as if summoned by a film animator two baby bunnies, appear under the feeder, one boldly making its way to the patio to explore the concrete contours. The scene is pure Disney gone amok.

Down by the split rail fence, another tiny cottontail surfaces among the begonias and makes a beeline (bunnyline?) for the romaine lettuce in the garden.

The head of the house sighs over his morning coffee and pretends to be annoyed. "Rabbits can be awful pests, you know," he says. "There must be
