Special Celebrations Honor Blessed Kateri

Fleming and Scipio Center - The dual parish of St. saac Jogues and St. Bernard celebrated the life of Blessed Kateri Tekakwitha recently. On Sunday, July 15, processions of small children, some dressed in Indian clothing, vere held in each church at the morning Masses.

Taking the role of Kateri was Mary Borza, who wore burlap and an Indian head-band, and carried a cross made of tree limbs. St. Isaac Jogues, the Jesuit martyr, was played by Donald Delaney, who wore a cassock. The two spoke of their representations in each church.

Following the Masses, prayer cards for the canonization of Blessed Kateri were handed out. Father Paul Cloonan, pastor, also spoke on the life of Kateri.

The special program was under the direction of Mrs. ack Walsh of Fleming.
