

Webster Parish Continues Little Rock Study

Webster—The Bible study program developed by the Diocese of Little Rock will begin its fifth semester, 10 a.m., Wednesday, Sept. 12 at St. Paul's Church.

The 19-week course will cover the Gospel and Epistles of St. John. The public is invited, regardless of parish affiliation or creed. Baby sitting will be provided.

The session will be repeated 7:30, Thursday, Sept. 13 at the home of the Ermatingers, 224 Shorewood Dr.

According to Mrs. Georgette Ermatinger, organizer of the program, "The study will be divided into two sessions: the first terminating the week before Thanksgiving, and the second commencing Wednesday and Thursday, Jan. 9 and 10. This will afford not only a respite for the participants but will not compete with holiday activities. the course will conclude about two weeks prior to Easter, April 7, thus allowing leeway for a snow holiday, if necessary."

The Little Rock series was developed a decade ago and has spread through more than 41 states and seven foreign countries. It is a program designed for the laity and to be run by laymen.

Mrs. Ermatinger described the format as "very informal and relaxed. Participants are divided into small discussion groups and remain together during the entire course. Discussion is centered around the previous week's reading following suggested question material. A major portion of the time is devoted to the relevancy of the gospel in everyone's life."

Study materials for the entire year are $9.50, but no one will be excluded for monetary reasons.

Registration and further information are available from Mrs. Ermatinger, (716) 671-5389.
