The Diocese has begun the Fourth Annual Catholic Thanks Giving Appeal in which Bishop Matthew Clark directly approaches parishioners for the funds necessary to conduct essential ministry programs. The goal this year is $3,038,000. To keep the people of our diocese informed on diocesan activities and programs, the Courier-Journal is running a seven-part series on the various diocesan ministries, which the appeal directly supports.

Pastoral Assistants' Workshop

"I feel committed to use all I have learned and appreciate this great opportunity."

Marjorie DeWitt
pastoral assistant
Good Shepherd, Henrietta

Priests' Sabbatical Program at Rome

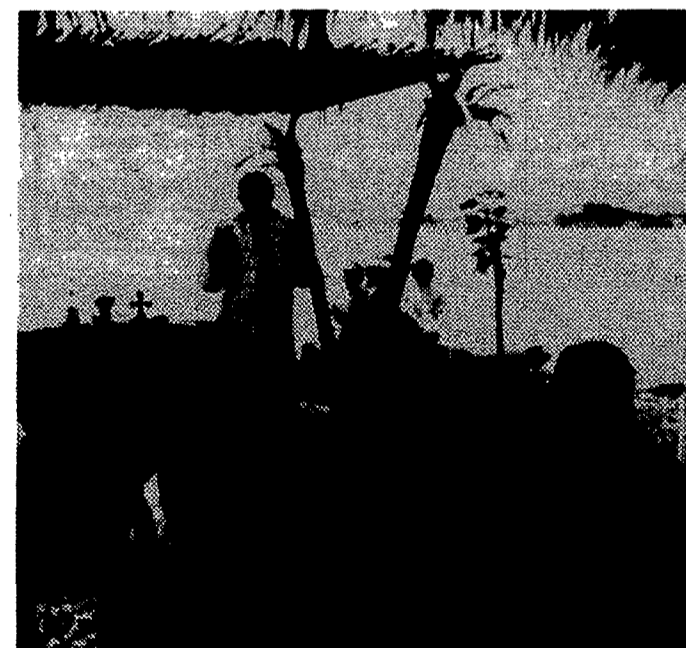

"All in all, it was just a great experience and my only regret is that I can't go back and do it again next year. It certainly has encouraged me to take advantage of future courses in Scripture and Spirituality. Those were the two highlights for me."

Father Charles Bennett
St. Agnes, Avon

Becket Hall

"This is an exciting new approach. It offers a community environment in which our young men may address the critical question, 'Is God calling me to become a priest?'"

Father James Schwartz
Director, Ministry to Priests and Becket Hall

These are very challenging times for the men and women who serve the Church as pastoral ministers. We have a special obligation today to support them and at the same time to call forth new leaders for the Church of tomorrow...
...Your generosity to the Thanks Giving Appeal makes this happen...so that together we can indeed 'share God's grace and goodness.'

— Father Charles Latus, Personnel Director
