

Spreading Cheer

Fourth graders at St. Theodore's School sing for the Sisters of St. Joseph at the congregation's convent and infirmary on the grounds of the motherhouse. The children also presented each Sister with a gift of a poinsetta donated through the efforts of Mrs. Beverly Lama. The recent event was the second time fourth graders entertained the Sisters for Christmas.

Genesee Hospital To Fete Chaplain

Members of the Genesee Hospital community will hold a party for Father Lawrence V. Murphy, 6 p.m., Friday, Jan. 18 at Arena's Party House.

Father Murphy has been chaplain to the hospital for the past 11 years. He will shortly leave for sabbatical studies at the American College of the Catholic University of Louvain in Belgium.

Following his studies, Father Murphy will sojourn with a monastic community in the midwest, and on his return to the diocese anticipates a new assignment.

The priest's friends and well-wishers are invited to the event. Tickets are $13 per person and reservations are obtained by sending checks made out to Jo Ann Lampman, 6 Lake Vista Ct. Apt. 3, Rochester, N.Y. 14612 before Jan. 9. The event includes a 6 p.m. cash bar and 7 p.m. buffet dinner.

FATHER MURPHY

Smokers' Clinics Scheduled Here

The American Cancer Society has scheduled four programs for persons wishing to quit smoking. All programs are free. The locations and schedules are:

Community Place Health Center, 210 Lyell Ave., 7-9 p.m., Wednesdays, Jan. 9, 16, 23, 30;

West Side Health Center, 428 Jefferson Ave., 7-9 p.m., Mondays, Jan. 7, 14, 21, 28;

Jordan Health Center, 82 Holland St., 7:30-9:30 p.m., Thursdays, Jan. 10, 17, 24, 31;

RHN, 500 East Ave., 7:30-9:30 p.m., Wednesdays, Jan. 30, Feb. 6, 13, 20.

Persons interested in registering for any of the four programs are asked to contact the American Cancer Society, 288-1950.

Fisher Offers 'Consumer Law'

St. John Fisher College will offer a course, "Consumer Law," Jan. 7-April 1.

The course is for the individual who is "a little puzzled or unclear about the meaning of federal and state laws which apply to you, the consumer," a college release stated.

It is designed to introduce the individual to the major problems and issues in the consumer law area. The course will survey federal and state laws governing advertising, sales practices, consumer credit transactions, consumer contracts, warranties, the "lemon law" and billing problems.

The state system, emphasizing small claims procedures, will also be discussed.

Attorney Arthur A. Marraese III will teach the course. Further information is available through the college's Continuing Education Division. 586-4140, ext. 365.

Webster K of C Dinner To Benefit Kidney Unit

Webster — The Knights of Columbus Trinity Council will hold a charity spaghetti dinner, 1-7 p.m., Sunday, Jan. 13 in the council's hall, 70 Barrett Drive.

The event will benefit the Kidney Foundation of Upstate New York.

Tickets to the dinner are $3 for adults and $2 for children under 12. They will be available at the door.

According to Marilyn E. Frank, executive director of the Kidney Foundation, "Our programs provide services to patients and their families, public and professional education, and research aimed at improved methods of treatment, prevention and cure of kidney and urologic diseases."

St. Joseph's Graduates Twenty-Five

Hornell — Twenty-five members of the 74th graduating class of St. James Mercy Hospital School of Nursing received diplomas at ceremonies Sunday, Dec. 16 at St. Ignatius Loyola Church here.

In addition, five received awards — Hope Hoffman, the Medical Staff Award for highest average; Kelly Weaver, the Women's Board Award for second highest average; Charlotte Billings, the Sister Mary Aid Award to the students "who best exemplifies the profession of nursing"; Phyllis Granita, the St. James Alumni Achievement Award to the most improved student; and Nancy Walker and Ms. Hoffman were named co-winners of the Faculty Award.

Father Jeremiah Moynihan, hospital chaplain, gave the invocation, benediction, and blessed the school pins and diplomas.

The other nurse graduates who will take state board examinations in February are Barbara Burgess, Wendy Fitzpatrick, Robert Flansburg, Jessica Garrett, Linda Hanrahan, Linda Henshaw and Carol Northrup of Hornell; Sandra Aldrich, Susan Knapp, Kristine Micglire and Concetta Reale of Canisteo.

Also Cynthia Smallman and Debra Travis of Dansville; Jacquelin LaBell and Sandra Weiland of Wayland; Janet Dziekonski and Donna Woolston of Genesee; Rhonda Walker and Carlene Wallace of Nunda; and Anita Clinton of Cameron.

Mt. Carmel Party Attracts 400

More than 400 attended the annual Christmas party for the Puerto Rican community on Sunday, Dec. 16 at the Mt. Carmel Parish Hall. The party featured national music, dancing and food. Above, two of the younger partiers — Ana Vargas and Michele Aponte — take a turn to the lively melodies provided by the band.

Business In the Diocese

Michael J. Piehler of Fairport, president of Piehler Pontiac, is one of 63 automobile dealers across the nation to be nominated for the 1985 Time Magazine Quality Dealer Award. He will represent Monroe County and Western New York as far east as Utica and Binghamton in the final judging, according to Donald N. Stahl, executive director of the Rochester Automobile Dealers Association.

Of the 63 nominees, 20 will be selected in late December for the final judging at the national automobile dealers convention in San Francisco.

Piehler, who says just being nominated for the award is an honor, is a graduate of Aquinas Institute and St. John Fisher College. He is a former teacher-coach at Aquinas and coached the Fisher football team in 1973. He is a diocesan permanent deacon and spends 10 to 12 hours weekly working at St. Francis Xavier parish.

He is married to the former Kathleen McGarry and they have two children, Jennifer Joy and Michael.

Gerould's Pharmacies

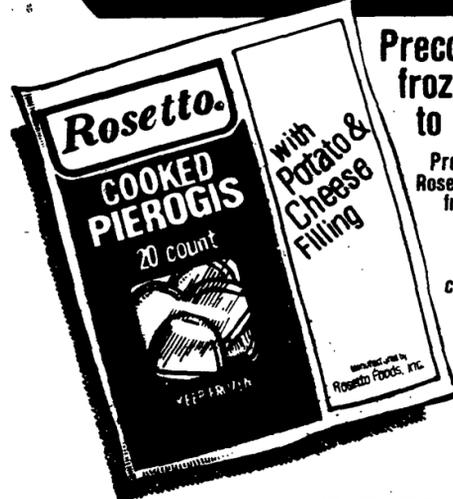

S. Main St. and Church & Hoffman Elmira

Delivery Service

733-6696

Delicious, Polish Style

PIEROGIS

Precooked & flash-frozen, only minutes to prepare!

Precooked, then carefully frozen. Rosetto pierogis take only minutes from the freezer to your dinner table. Filled with a hearty potato-cheese blend, Rosetto pierogis are the perfect complement for any meat dish. They make a satisfying, inexpensive meal served alone or with cottage cheese. Look for the red and white Rosetto pierogi bag in your frozen food section.

25¢ OFF

RONY 1

the purchase price of a 30 oz. bag of frozen ROSETTO 20 precooked pierogis without sauce.

Save Money, Buy a Package Today!

DEALER: Rosetto Foods will redeem this coupon at 10 White Street, Rochester, N.Y. 14608 for 25¢ plus 7¢ handling, provided coupon is taken in exchange for a package of frozen Rosetto precooked pierogis, in accordance with terms of our agreement. Cash value 1/20th of a cent. This coupon void where taxed, prohibited or restricted by law.

EXPIRES FEBRUARY 28, 1985